

requirements.¹ The GLBA requires both IDIs and NGEPs to make a copy of any CRA-Related agreement available upon request and file an annual report with each relevant supervisory agency regarding the use of funds under such agreement for that fiscal year. In addition, an IDI and affiliate must provide to the relevant supervisory agency each calendar quarter a list of all CRA-related agreements entered into during the quarter with a copy of the agreement.

Current Actions: On September 23, 2015 the Federal Reserve published a notice in the Federal Register (80 FR 57374) requesting public comment for 60 days on the extension, without revision, of the Requirements for Disclosure and Reporting of CRA-Related Agreements (Regulation G). The comment period for this notice expired on November 23, 2015. The Federal Reserve did not receive any comments. The information collection will be extended for three years, without revision, as proposed.

Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System, December 4, 2015.

Robert deV. Frierson,
Secretary of the Board.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Title: COPPA Rule, 16 CFR part 312.
OMB Control Number: 3084-0117.

Type of Review: Extension of currently approved collection.

Abstract: On September 25, 2015, the FTC sought public comment on the information collection requirements associated with subpart N. 80 FR 57818 ("September 25, 2015 Federal Register Notice"). No relevant comments were received. Pursuant to the OMB regulations, 5 CFR part 1320, that implement the PRA, 44 U.S.C. 3501 et seq., the FTC is providing a second opportunity for public comment while seeking OMB approval to renew the pre-existing clearance for the Rule.

The COPPA Rule, 16 CFR part 312, requires commercial Web sites to provide notice and obtain parents' consent before collecting, using, and/or disclosing personal information from children under age 13, with limited exceptions. The COPPA Rule contains certain statutorily-required notice requirements that apply to operators of any Web site or online service directed to children, and operators of any Web site or online service with actual knowledge of collecting personal information from children. Covered operators must: Provide online notice and direct notice to parents of how they collect, use, and disclose children's
