TTB uses the information collected under this information collection to protect the revenue.

Current Actions: TTB is submitting this collection as a revision. The form and recordkeeping requirement associated with this information collection remain unchanged. Use of tax-free alcohol is regulated to prevent illegal diversion to beverage use and for public safety. The applications, notices, and source records required by this information collection protect the revenue, help prevent and detect diversion, and ensure lawful use of tax-free alcohol.

Current Actions: TTB is submitting this information collection for extension purposes only. The information collection, estimated number of respondents, and estimated number of burden hours remain unchanged.

Type of Review: Extension of a currently approved collection.

Abstract: The Internal Revenue Code at 26 U.S.C. 5122 requires retail liquor dealers to keep records of all alcohol beverages received and to keep records of the disposition of alcohol beverages as may be prescribed by regulation. The TTB regulations at 27 CFR 31.181 require retail dealers to keep receipt invoices (or a separate record book) of all alcohol beverages received and to keep records of any sales of alcohol beverages of over 20 wine gallons to the same person at the same time. Under 27 CFR 31.191, these records must be maintained for at least three years. The information contained in these retail dealer records fulfills the statutory requirement.

OMB Number: 1513-0067.

TTB Recordkeeping Requirement Number: REC 5170/6.

Abstract: Under the authority of the Internal Revenue Code at 26 U.S.C. 5121, the TTB regulations in 27 CFR part 31 require wholesale dealers to keep records of the receipt and disposition of distilled spirits. As authorized at 27 CFR 31.159, wholesale dealers may submit letterhead applications to the appropriate TTB officer for approval of variations in the type and format of such records, and, as authorized at 27 CFR 31.172, for variations in the place of retention for those records. This information collection consists of the records related to such variance requests, including variance applications and notices of TTB approval of requested variances. TTB review of these variance applications is necessary in order to determine that the variance would not unduly hinder the effective administration of 27 CFR part 31, jeopardize the revenue, or be contrary to any provisions of law.

Current Actions: TTB is submitting this collection as a revision. The recordkeeping requirement remains unchanged. However, TTB is decreasing the estimated number of respondents and the resulting total annual burden hours associated with this information collection due to a decrease in the number of recordkeeping variance requests it receives from wholesale dealers.

Type of Review: Revision of a currently approved collection.

Affected Public: Businesses and other for-profits.

Estimated Number of Respondents: 100.

Estimated Total Annual Burden Hours: 50.

TTB Recordkeeping Requirement Number: REC 5170/7.

Abstract: Under the TTB regulations in 27 CFR part 28, exporters of alcohol may file letterhead applications requesting approval of alternate methods or procedures or emergency variations from the requirements of that part. TTB uses such applications to determine if the requested method, procedure, or emergency variation will protect the revenue and will not pose a burden to TTB in administering part 28, while allowing exporters the maximum operational flexibility.

Current Actions: TTB is submitting this collection as a revision. This recordkeeping requirement remains unchanged. However, TTB is decreasing the estimated number of respondents and the annual burden hours associated with this information collection due to a decrease in the number of exporters applying for alternate methods or procedures and emergency variances.

Type of Review: Revision of a currently approved collection.

Affected Public: Businesses or other for-profits.

Estimated Number of Respondents: 270.

Estimated Total Annual Burden Hours: 108.

Title: Notices Relating to Payment of Firearms and Ammunition Excise Tax.

OMB Number: 1513-0097.

TTB Form or Recordkeeping Number: None.

Abstract: Federal excise taxes are collected on the sale or use of firearms and ammunition by firearms or ammunition manufacturers, importers, and producers. Taxpayers who elect to pay these excise taxes by electronic fund transfer (EFT) must furnish a written notice to TTB when they elect to use or discontinue tax payment by EFT. TTB uses this information to anticipate and monitor taxpayer methods of payment and to ensure that taxes are remitted in the appropriate form, as chosen by the taxpayer.

Current Actions: TTB is submitting this information collection for extension purposes only. The information collection, estimated number of respondents, and estimated number of burden hours remain unchanged.

Type of Review: Extension of a currently approved collection.

Affected Public: Businesses or other for-profits.

Abstract: Distilled spirits, industrial alcohol, beer and wine are taxed when imported into the United States, but the Federal excise taxes collected on these commodities brought into the United States from Puerto Rico and the U.S. Virgin Islands are largely returned to their respective governments. Exports are generally tax free. The documents required under this information collection ensure that the proper taxes are collected and returned according to law.

Current Actions: TTB is submitting this information collection for extension purposes only. The information collection, estimated number of respondents, and estimated total annual burden hours remain unchanged.

Type of Review: Extension of a currently approved collection.

Affected Public: Business or other for-profit.

Estimated Number of Respondents: 20.

Estimated Total Annual Burden Hours: 180.

Title: Information Collected in Support of Small Producers Wine Tax Credit, TTB REC 5120/11.

OMB Number: 1513-0104.

TTB Recordkeeping Requirement Number: REC 5120/11.

Abstract: Certain small wine producers are eligible for a tax credit which may be taken to reduce the Federal excise tax they pay on wines removed from their premises. In addition, small producers can transfer their tax credit to bonded warehouses, which store their wine and ship it on their instructions. Under TTB regulations, the transferee uses information provided by the small producer to take the appropriate credit on behalf of the small producer, and the producer will use the information to monitor its own tax payments to ensure it does not exceed the authorized annual credit. The information is used by taxpayers in preparing their returns and by TTB to verify tax computation.

Type of Review: Extension of a currently approved collection.
