Title of Collection: Antarctic emergency response plan and environmental protection information.

OMB Approval Number: 3145-0180.

Abstract: NSF, pursuant to the Antarctic Conservation Act of 1978 (16 U.S.C. 2401 et seq.) ("ACA") regulates certain non-governmental activities in Antarctica. The ACA was amended in 1996 by the Antarctic Science, Tourism, and Conservation Act. On September 7, 2001, NSF published a final rule in the Federal Register (66 FR 46739) implementing certain of these statutory amendments. The rule requires non-governmental Antarctic expeditions using non-U.S. flagged vessels to ensure that the vessel owner has an emergency response plan. The rule also requires persons organizing a non-governmental expedition to provide expedition members with information on their environmental protection obligations under the Antarctic Conservation Act.

Expected Respondents. Respondents may include non-profit organizations and small and large businesses. The majority of respondents are anticipated to be U.S. tour operators, currently estimated to number fifteen.

Burden on the Public. The Foundation estimates that a one-time paperwork and recordkeeping burden of 40 hours or less, at a cost of $500 to $1400 per respondent, will result from the emergency response plan requirement contained in the rule. Presently, all respondents have been providing expedition members with a copy of the Guidance for Visitors to the Antarctic (prepared and adopted at the Eighteenth Antarctic Treaty Consultative Meeting as Recommendation XVIII-1). Because this Antarctic Treaty System document satisfies the environmental protection information requirements of the rule, no additional burden shall result from the environmental information requirements in the proposed rule.

Dated: March 9, 2016.

Suzanne H. Plimpton,

Reports Clearance Officer, National Science Foundation.

II. Background

On December 23, 2015, the NRC published in the Federal Register (80 FR 79956) the draft NUREG-2191, "Generic Aging Lessons Learned for Subsequent License Renewal (GALL-SLR) Report," Vol. I and II and draft NUREG-2192, "Standard Review Plan for Review of Subsequent License Renewal Applications for Nuclear Power Plants" (SRP-SLR), which are available under ADAMS Accession Nos. ML15348A111, ML15348A153, and ML15348A265, respectively. These draft documents describe methods acceptable to the NRC staff for granting a subsequent license renewal (i.e., license renewal following 60 years of licensed operation) in accordance with the NRC's license renewal regulations, as well as techniques used by the NRC staff in evaluating applications for subsequent license renewal.

The changes described in the GALL-SLR and SRP-SLR Supplemental Staff Guidance were developed subsequent to the release of the draft versions of NUREG-2191 and NUREG-2192 and are
