SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

I. Introduction

Section 165 of the Dodd-Frank Wall Street Reform and Consumer Protection Act (Dodd-Frank Act) directs the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System (Board) to establish enhanced prudential standards for nonbank financial companies that the Financial Stability Oversight Council (Council) has determined should be supervised by the Board and bank holding companies with total consolidated assets equal to or greater than $50 billion in order to prevent or mitigate risks to U.S. financial stability that could arise from the material financial distress or failure, or ongoing activities, of these companies.¹ The enhanced prudential standards must include risk-based capital requirements and leverage limits, liquidity requirements, certain risk-management requirements, resolution-planning requirements, single-counterparty credit limits, and stress-test requirements. Section 165 also permits the Board to establish
