

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

I. Abstract

The National Park Service Organic Act, 54 U.S.C. 100101(a) et seq., requires that the NPS preserve national parks for the enjoyment, education, and inspiration of this and future generations. A number of NPS units contain privately held lands. In order to preclude incompatible development, protect resources and provide for visitor use and enjoyment, it is sometimes necessary for the NPS to seek to acquire certain private lands or interests therein. The NPS also cooperates with states, local governments, nonprofit organizations and property owners to provide other forms of protection.

As required by the provisions of Public Law 91–646, the Uniform Relocation Assistance and Real Property Acquisition Policies Act of 1970, as amended, NPS provides relocation assistance benefits to all eligible parties displaced by an agency acquisition. The purpose of the Act is to provide for uniform and equitable treatment of persons displaced from their homes, businesses, or farms and to establish uniform and equitable land acquisition policies associated with for Federal and federally assisted programs.

The NPS procedures for acquisition of land or interests therein and for the relocation of occupants are governed by the Act. The NPS proposes to verify eligibility for reimbursement of certain expenses incurred by a property owner incidental to the conveyance of real property to the United States, and to quantify the amount of reimbursement payments through the implementation of proposed Form 10–840.

NPS Form 10–840, “Claim for Reimbursement of Expenses Incidental to Conveyance of Real Property”

The information collected via proposed Form 10–840 includes:

- Contact information, to include name, telephone number, Social Security Number or Taxpayer Identification Number, email address, and complete mailing address;
- Location of property acquired by the agency; and,
- Incidental expenses, to include recording and transfer fees, penalty costs, and allowable taxes paid.

Appeals Process

The appeals procedure is contained in 49 Code of Federal Regulations, part 24.10. The NPS’ decision on submitted claims will be final unless, within 60 days of the date of mailing of the decision, a written notice of appeal is mailed to: Director, Office of Hearings and Appeals, Department of the Interior, Washington, DC 20240. The notice of appeal should contain information to identify the action or decision appealed and should give a brief but complete statement of the facts relied upon and the relief desired. A copy of the notice of appeal and any accompanying statements of the reasons for it should be mailed to the official who made the decision.
