

January 1 of each year, based proportionally on changes in the Consumer Price Index, with fractional changes rounded to the nearest fifty cents. The Bureau's calculations are based on the CPI-U, which is the most general Consumer Price Index and covers all urban consumers and all items.

Section 612(a) of the FCRA gives consumers the right to a free disclosure upon request once every 12 months. The maximum allowable charge established by this notice does not apply to requests made under that provision. The charge does apply when a consumer who orders a file disclosure has already received a free annual disclosure and does not otherwise qualify for an additional free disclosure.

The Bureau is using the $8.00 amount set forth in section 612(f)(1)(A)(i) of the FCRA as the baseline for its calculation of the increase in the ceiling on reasonable charges for certain disclosures made under section 609 of the FCRA. Since the effective date of section 612(a) was September 30, 1997, the Bureau calculated the proportional increase in the CPI-U from September 1997 to September 2016. The Bureau then determined what modification, if any, from the original base of $8.00 should be made effective for 2017, given the requirement that fractional changes be rounded to the nearest fifty cents.

Between September 1997 and September 2016, the CPI-U increased by 49.77 percent from an index value of 161.2 in September 1997 to a value of 241.428 in September 2016. An increase of 49.77 percent in the $8.00 base figure would lead to a figure of $11.98. However, because the statute directs that the resulting figure be rounded to the nearest $0.50, the maximum allowable charge is $12.00. The Bureau therefore determines that the maximum allowable charge for the year 2017 will remain at $12.00, effective January 1, 2017.

Dated: November 8, 2016.
