4. Title: Interagency Guidance on Sound Incentive Compensation Practices.

OMB Number: 3064–0175.
Form Number: None.
Affected Public: Insured State Nonmember Banks and State Savings Associations.
Burden Estimate:

	Type of burden	Estimated number of respondents	Estimated number of responses	Estimated time per response (hours)	Frequency of response	Total annual estimated burden (hours)
Annual maintenance of policies and procedures.	Recordkeeping .....	3,878	1	40	Annual .....	155,120

General Description of Collection: The Guidance on Sound Incentive Compensation Practices helps ensure that incentive compensation policies at insured state nonmember banks and state savings associations do not encourage excessive risk-taking and are consistent with the safety and soundness of the organization. Under the Guidance, banks are required to: (i) Have policies and procedures that identify and describe the role(s) of the personnel and units authorized to be involved in incentive compensation arrangements, identify the source of significant risk-related inputs, establish appropriate controls governing these inputs to help ensure their integrity, and identify the individual(s) and unit(s) whose approval is necessary for the establishment or modification of incentive compensation arrangements; (ii) create and maintain sufficient documentation to permit an audit of the organization’s processes for incentive compensation arrangements; (iii) have any material exceptions or adjustments to the incentive compensation arrangements established for senior executives approved and documented by its board of directors; and (iv) have its board of directors receive and review, on an annual or more frequent basis operation of the organization’s incentive compensation system in providing risk-taking incentives that are consistent with the organization’s safety and soundness.

Request for Comment

Comments are invited on: (a) Whether the collections of information are necessary for the proper performance of the FDIC’s functions, including whether the information has practical utility; (b) the accuracy of the estimates of the burden of the information collections, including the validity of the methodology and assumptions used; (c) ways to enhance the quality, utility, and clarity of the information to be collected; and (d) ways to minimize the burden of the collections of information on respondents, including through the use of automated collection techniques or other forms of information technology. All comments will become a matter of public record.

[Docket No. 16–17]

Notice of Filing of Complaint and Assignment

Connie Lane Christy and Christy Collection International Inc. on behalf of the Annie Grace Foundation for the Children of Bali Indonesia v. Air 7 Seas Transport Logistics Inc.

Notice is given that a Complaint has been filed with the Federal Maritime Commission (Commission) by Connie Lane Christy and Christy Collection International Inc. on behalf of The Annie Grace Foundation for the Children of Bali Indonesia, hereinafter “Complainants,” against Air 7 Seas Transport Logistics Inc., hereinafter “Respondent.” Complainants alleges that Respondent is an ocean freight forwarder located in California.

Complainant alleges that Respondent has violated the Shipping Act of 1984 in connection with a shipment of personal effects shipped from Charleston, South Carolina to Bali, Indonesia. Complainants allege they entered into a contract for “door to door” service, but such service was not provided, the goods were never delivered and are now “lost”. Complainant seeks reparations of $520,000 “for the loss of goods, and the loss of the efforts involved in forming this Foundation.”

Complainants allege that “the service performed as an Ocean Freight Forwarder were in violation of definitions set forth in that Act.” The complainant requests “the courts judgement in this case.”

The full text of the complaint can be found in the Commission’s Electronic Reading Room at www.fmc.gov/16-17.

This proceeding has been assigned to the Office of Administrative Law Judges. The initial decision of the presiding officer in this proceeding shall be issued by November 21, 2017 and the final
