

information, are preloaded for efficiency. To facilitate grantee and NIDILRR staff review of information submitted, the system includes system-generated tables that summarize information entered in specific sections. The Web-based system also carries forward information from one section of the form to the next; for example, information on outcome-oriented goals is carried forward for convenient linkage with projects/activities and publications. New mandates promoting public-access to government-sponsored information and products have led to new requirements for NIDILRR's grantees. NIDILRR and the Administration for Community Living have recently published our public access plan to operationalize these requirements related to public access to publications that result from work we sponsor. Specifically the Type 1 Outputs: Publications section has been modified to meet these requirements. NIDILRR took time to build these requirements into its annual performance report (APR) so that we can systematically monitor grantee compliance with the public access plan. The current reporting section will remain for all grants funded prior to 10/1/16 and continue to be used until such grants have ended. Grants funded after this date will see the section meeting the new reporting requirements. Minor changes to the currently approved reporting form were necessary to reflect NIDILRR's new name and its move from ED to HHS. These include:

- Replacing references to ED's statutory requirements, forms, systems, and CFDA numbers with appropriate HHS references.

- Changes necessary to accommodate the assignment of new HHS grant numbers (in a different format) to existing and new grants. The addition of one response option in the Indirect Costs section of the reporting form.

Changes in the Burden Statement, reflecting the agency's move from ED to HHS, have been previously approved by OMB.

Other changes include:

Changes were made in the instructions for grantees' reporting on technology transfer plans (RERC grantees only).

Insertion of one item about the stages of research in the Research Projects section and one item about the stages of development in the Development Projects section.

Regulatory changes required minor changes to the response section for development projects and the addition of a question regarding commercialization.

Reporting forms for all 10 programs are Web-based; that is, all grantees will complete their annual reports via the Internet. Data collected through these forms will be used to:

- (a) Facilitate program planning and management;
- (b) respond to Department of Health and Human Services (DHHS) Grants Policy Administration Manual (GPAM) requirements; and
- (c) respond to the reporting requirements of the Government Performance and Results Act (GPRA) of 1993 (Pub. L. 103-62).¹

OMB approval is requested for 3 years. There are no costs to respondents other than their time. The average annual burden associated with these activities over a three-year period is summarized below.

NIDILRR and HHS will use the information gathered annually from these data collection efforts to provide Congress with the information mandated in GPRA, provide OMB information required for assessment of performance on GPRA indicators, and support its evaluation activities. Data collected from the 10 grant programs will provide a national description of the research activities of approximately 275 NIDILRR grantees per year in fiscal years 2017-2019.

While the number of grantees will vary from year to year, all grantees will be required to submit an annual performance report and a final report at the completion of the project. Based on our experience with reporting burden, we estimate that it will take an average of 52 hours to complete the reporting form in a grantee's first year of award. In subsequent years, the estimated response burden is approximately 22 hours. The estimated response burden includes time to review the instructions, gather existing data, and complete and review the form. The number of respondents is based on the average number of grants administered by NIDILRR over time. The proposed NIDILRR Annual Performance Report (APR) and final report forms can be found on the ACL Web site at:

<https://acl.gov/Programs/NIDILRR/docs/NIDILRR-APR-FinalForm-2016.pdf>.

ACL estimates the burden hours for this collection of information as follows:

	Number of respondents	Number of responses per respondent	Average burden hours per response	Total burden hours
New Grantees	75	1	52	3,900
Continuations and Final Reports	200	1	22	4,400
Total	8,300
