

SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION

[Release No. 34–80501; File No. SR–NYSEArca–2016–176]

Self-Regulatory Organizations; NYSE Arca, Inc.; Order Instituting Proceedings To Determine Whether To Approve or Disapprove a Proposed Rule Change Relating to the Listing and Trading of Shares of the EtherIndex Ether Trust Under NYSE Arca Equities Rule 8.201

April 21, 2017.

On December 30, 2016, NYSE Arca, Inc. (“NYSE Arca” or “Exchange”) filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission (“Commission”), pursuant to Section 19(b)(1) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (“Act”)¹ and Rule 19b–4 thereunder,² a proposed rule change to list and trade shares (“Shares”) of the EtherIndex Ether Trust (“Trust”) under NYSE Arca Equities Rule 8.201. The proposed rule change was published for comment in the Federal Register on January 23, 2017.³ On February 23, 2017, pursuant to Section 19(b)(2) of the Act,⁴ the Commission designated a longer period within which to approve the proposed rule change, disapprove the proposed rule change, or institute proceedings to determine whether to approve or disapprove the proposed rule change.⁵ The Commission has received no comments on the proposed rule change.

This order institutes proceedings under Section 19(b)(2)(B) of the Act⁶ to determine whether to approve or disapprove the proposed rule change.

I. Summary of the Proposal⁷

The Exchange proposes to list and trade the Shares under NYSE Arca

Equities Rule 8.201, which governs the listing and trading of Commodity-Based Trust Shares on the Exchange.⁸ Each Share would represent a fractional undivided beneficial interest in the Trust’s net assets. According to the Exchange, the Trust’s assets primarily would consist of ether,⁹ which would be held in the custody of, and secured by, the Trust’s ether custodian, Coinbase (“Custodian”).¹⁰ The Trust would create and redeem the Shares only in “Baskets” of 10,000 Shares, and orders to create and redeem Baskets may be placed only by Authorized Participants. The creation and redemption transactions would be conducted for cash or, at the discretion of the sponsor of the Trust, EtherIndex LLC, “in-kind” for ether, and the NAV of the Baskets being created or redeemed would be relating to, among other things, Ethereum Network operations, ether transfers and transactions, cryptographic security used in the Ethereum Network, ether mining and creation of new ether, the supply of ether, and modifications to the ether protocol.

¹⁰ According to the Exchange, the private keys that control the Trust’s ether would be secured by the Custodian and stored completely offline in a “cold storage” system. The Exchange represents that the Custodian’s cold storage system is founded on the principles of (i) building defense-in-depth against external threats, (ii) protecting against human error, and (iii) guarding against misuse of insider access. The Custodian’s cold storage mechanism involves generating private keys on an “air-gapped” computer (i.e., a computer that has never been connected to the Internet), then splitting these keys into segments using a special algorithm to ensure that no one individual knows how the key was fragmented, and finally distributing these fragments geographically so that no one entity can access the cold storage without the other individuals contributing their fragment of the key. According to the Exchange, the Custodian maintains insurance against theft and electronic compromise in an amount that exceeds the average value of ether that it holds online at any one time. The Exchange also represents that the Trust may hold cash for short periods in connection with the creation and redemption process and to pay certain fees, expenses, and liabilities.

based on the aggregate number of ether represented by the Shares included in the Baskets as of the day the order to create or redeem was properly received.

The investment objective of the Trust would be for the Shares to track the price of ether as measured by the price of ether in U.S. dollars reported by the Global Digital Asset Exchange (“GDAX”) as of 4:00 p.m., Eastern Time (“GDAX Price”). The NAV of the Trust would be calculated each business day based on the GDAX Price. The Trust’s Web site would provide an intra-day indicative value (“IIV”) per Share updated every 15 seconds, as calculated by the Exchange or a third-party financial data provider during the Exchange’s Core Trading Session (i.e., 9:30 a.m. ET to 4:00 p.m. Eastern Time). The IIV would be calculated by using the prior day’s closing NAV per Share as a base and updating that value during the NYSE Arca Core Trading Session to reflect changes in the value of the Trust’s ether holdings during the trading day.

II. Proceedings to Determine Whether To Approve or Disapprove SR–NYSEArca–2016–176 and Grounds for Disapproval Under Consideration

The Commission is instituting proceedings pursuant to Section 19(b)(2)(B) of the Act¹¹ to determine whether the proposed rule change should be approved or disapproved. Institution of such proceedings is appropriate at this time in view of the legal and policy issues raised by the proposed rule change. Institution of proceedings does not indicate that the Commission has reached any conclusions with respect to any of the issues involved. Rather, as described below, the Commission seeks and encourages interested persons to provide comments on the proposed rule change.

Pursuant to Section 19(b)(2)(B) of the Act,¹² the Commission is providing notice of the grounds for disapproval under consideration. The Commission is instituting proceedings to allow for additional analysis of the proposed rule change’s consistency with Section 6(b)(5) of the Act, which requires, among other things, that the rules of a national securities exchange be “designed to prevent fraudulent and manipulative acts and practices” and “to protect investors and the public interest.”¹³

⁷ The Commission notes that additional information regarding the Trust and the Shares can be found in the Notice, see supra note 3, and the Registration Statement, which was filed by the Trust on Form S–1 under the Securities Act of 1933 on July 15, 2016, and amended on November 28, 2016. This additional information addresses the Trust’s investment objectives, risks, creation and redemption procedures, fees, portfolio holdings disclosure policies, calculation of the net asset value (“NAV”), distributions, and taxes, as well as additional background information about ether and the Ethereum Network, including information

III. Procedure: Request for Written Comments

The Commission requests that interested persons provide written submissions of their views, data, and arguments with respect to the issues identified above, as well as any other concerns they may have with the proposal. In particular, the Commission invites the written views of interested persons concerning whether the proposal is consistent with Section 6(b)(5) or any other provision of the Act, or the rules and regulations thereunder. Although there do not appear to be any issues relevant to approval or disapproval that would be facilitated by an oral presentation of views, data, and arguments, the Commission will consider, pursuant to Rule 19b-4, any request for an opportunity to make an oral presentation.¹⁴

Interested persons are invited to submit written data, views, and arguments regarding whether the proposal should be approved or disapproved by May 18, 2017. Any person who wishes to file a rebuttal to any other person's submission must file that rebuttal by June 1, 2017. The Commission asks that commenters address the sufficiency of the Exchange's statements in support of the proposal, which are set forth in the Notice.¹⁵ In addition to any other comments commenters may wish to submit about the proposed rule change, the Commission invites commenters' views concerning any features that distinguish the Exchange's proposal from other proposals to list and trade shares of commodity-trust ETPs.

Comments may be submitted by any of the following methods:
