SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

I. Introduction

On March 17, 2017, the Copyright Royalty Judges (Judges) published a notice in the Federal Register seeking comments on proposed amendments to regulations relating to an automated system, designated eCRB.¹ The proposed regulations addressed electronic filing of claims to royalty fees deposited with the Copyright Office for compulsory licenses. The Judges received comments from the following interested parties: The Allocation Phase Parties;² the Joint Sports Claimants (JSC);³ the MPAA-Represented Program Suppliers (Program Suppliers);⁴ the

² "The Allocation Phase Parties are Program Suppliers, Joint Sports Claimants, Commercial Television Claimants, Public Broadcasting Service, American Society of Composers, Authors and Publishers, Broadcast Music, Inc., SESAC, Inc., Settling Devotional Claimants, Canadian Claimants Group, and National Public Radio." Comments of the Allocation Phase Parties at 1 n.1.

³ The JSC is comprised of Office of the Commissioner of Baseball, National Football League, National Basketball Association, Women's National Basketball Association, National Hockey League, and the National Collegiate Athletic Association. JSC Comments at 1 n.1.

⁴ The Program Suppliers are comprised of The Motion Picture Association of America, Inc., its

Performing Rights Organizations (PROs);⁵ and Screenrights International (Screenrights).⁶

II. Comments on Proposed Rules and Judges' Findings

The Judges address the comments on a section-by-section basis. The Judges will adopt without change those sections upon which no interested party commented.⁷

Section 360.4—Form and Content of Claims

Each of the comments the Judges received addressed this section. All of the commenters opposed proposed language that would have required parties filing joint claims to identify a qualifying secondary transmission of a work for each copyright owner listed in a joint claim. See, e.g., Comments of the Allocation Phase Parties at 1-4; JSC Comments at 1; Program Suppliers Comments at 3-4; PROs Comments at 4-6; Screenrights Comments at 1. Two commenters sought clarification that § 360.4(b)(2)(ii) does not require the filer of a joint claim to include a separate statement from each copyright owner confirming the filer's authorization to act on the copyright owner's behalf. See Comments of the Allocation Phase Parties at 6-7; Program Suppliers Comments at 2-3. In addition, the Program Suppliers proposed that the special relief granted to performing rights organizations in § 360.4(b)(2)(i) and (ii) be extended to "collective management organizations" such as AGICOA, EGEDA, and Screenrights. See Program Suppliers Comments at 4-7.⁸

The Allocation Phase Parties described the burden on claimants and filers of requiring identification of a qualifying transmission for a work of each copyright owner listed in a joint claim, both in terms of labor and monetary expense. "For example, the member companies and "other producers and/or distributors of syndicated series, movies, specials, and non-team sports broadcast by television stations." Program Suppliers Comments at 1.

⁵ The PROs consist of the American Society of Composers, Authors and Publishers, Broadcast Music, Inc., and SESAC, Inc.

⁶ "Screenrights International is a division of the Audio-Visual Copyright Society Pty Ltd trading as Screenrights the Australian based collecting society." Screenrights Comments at 1.

⁸ Several commenters also suggested nonsubstantive, technical corrections to this section. The Judges find all of those suggestions to have merit and have included them in the final rule.
