

“relocation payments under 25 U.S.C. 1408 are treated as assets.” We make no substantive change because the statute cited, section 1408, pertains to interests of American Indians in trusts or restricted lands and is listed in final § 3.279(b)(2), where we note such payments are excluded from income (up to $2,000 per year) and assets.”

6. On page 47261, third column, in the fifth paragraph, the first sentence is corrected to read as follows:

“However, the commenter goes on to quote from 42 U.S.C. 4636, which is the basis of the relocation payment exclusion listed at final § 3.279(a)(1).”

7. On page 47262, first column, in the first full paragraph, second sentence is corrected to read as follows:

“This payment type was listed as an income exclusion at proposed § 3.279(d)(1) and is now at final § 3.279(c)(1).”

8. On page 47262, first column, in the first full paragraph, the fourth sentence is corrected to read as follows:

“Therefore, the only substantive change we make here is to update the statutory citation.”

9. On page 47262, first column, the second paragraph is corrected to read as follows:

“Similarly, the same commenter stated that payments to AmeriCorps participants, listed as an exclusion from income at proposed § 3.279(d)(2), should not be considered an asset for the annualization period in which the payment is received. Since the statutory authority for this exclusion, 42 U.S.C. 12637(d), does not authorize the exclusion of these payments from assets, we make no substantive changes based on this comment.”

10. On page 47263, first column, in the first paragraph under the heading “3. Distribution and Derivation Tables for Exclusions,” the fifth sentence is corrected to read as follows:

“The derivation table here corrects one error from the table providing this information in the proposed rule, and updates the paragraphs in accord with the recharacterization of proposed paragraphs (b) through (e) discussed above.”
