Rubber Bands From the People's Republic of China: Antidumping Duty and Countervailing Duty Orders

AGENCY: Enforcement and Compliance, International Trade Administration, Department of Commerce.

SUMMARY: Based on affirmative final determinations by the Department of Commerce (Commerce) and the International Trade Commission (ITC), Commerce is issuing antidumping duty (AD) and countervailing duty (CVD) orders on rubber bands from the People's Republic of China (China).

DATES: Applicable February 19, 2019.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Stephanie Berger at (202) 482-2483 (AD) and Kristen Johnson at 202-482-4793 (CVD), AD/CVD Operations, Enforcement and Compliance, U.S. Department of Commerce, 1401 Constitution Avenue NW, Washington, DC 20230.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Background

In accordance with sections 705(d) and 735(d) of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended (the Act), on November 20, 2018, Commerce published its affirmative final determination of sales at less than fair value (LTFV) and its affirmative final determination that countervailable subsidies are being provided to producers and exporters of rubber bands from China.¹ On February 11, 2019, the ITC notified Commerce of its final affirmative determinations that an industry in the United States is materially injured by reason of LTFV imports and subsidized imports of rubber bands from China, within the meaning of sections 705(b)(1)(A)(i) and 735(b)(1)(A)(i) of the Act.² The ITC also notified Commerce of its negative findings concerning critical circumstances with regard to imports of this product from China.³

Scope of the Orders

The products covered by these orders are rubber bands from China. For a complete description of the scope of the orders, see the Appendix to this notice.

AD Order

On February 11, 2019, in accordance with section 735(d) of the Act, the ITC notified Commerce of its final determination that an industry in the United States is materially injured within the meaning of section 735(b)(1)(A)(i) of the Act by reason of imports of rubber bands from China that are sold in the United States at LTFV.

² See Letter to the Honorable Gary Taverman, Acting Assistance Secretary of Commerce for Enforcement and Compliance, from David S. Johanson, Chairman of the ITC, regarding "Notification of ITC Final Determinations," dated January 7, 2019 (Filed in ACCESS on February 11, 2019) (ITC Notification); see also Rubber Bands from China, Investigation Nos. 701-TA-598 and 731-TA-1408 (Final), (USITC Publication 4863).

Therefore, in accordance with section 735(c)(2) of the Act, we are issuing this AD order. Because the ITC determined that imports of rubber bands from China are materially injuring a U.S. industry, unliquidated entries of such merchandise from China entered, or withdrawn from warehouse, for consumption are subject to the assessment of antidumping duties.

Therefore, in accordance with section 736(a)(1) of the Act, Commerce will direct U.S. Customs and Border Protection (CBP) to assess, upon further instruction by Commerce, antidumping duties equal to the amount by which the normal value of the merchandise exceeds the export price (or constructed export price) of the merchandise, for all relevant entries of rubber bands from China. Antidumping duties will be assessed on unliquidated entries of rubber bands from China entered, or withdrawn from warehouse, for consumption on or after September 6, 2018, the date of publication of the AD preliminary determination⁴ and before January 4, 2019. Section 733(d) of the Act states that the suspension of liquidation pursuant to a preliminary determination may not remain in effect for more than four months. Therefore, entries of subject merchandise from China made on or after January 4, 2019, and prior to the date of publication of the ITC's final determination in the Federal Register are not liable for the assessment of antidumping duties due to Commerce's discontinuation of the suspension of liquidation.

Continuation of Suspension of Liquidation—AD

In accordance with section 736 of the Act, we will instruct CBP to reinstitute the suspension of liquidation on entries of rubber bands from China, effective on the date of publication in the Federal Register of the ITC's final affirmative injury determination. These instructions suspending liquidation will remain in effect until further notice.

We will also instruct CBP to require cash deposits equal to the amount as indicated below. Accordingly, effective on the date of publication in the Federal Register of the ITC's final affirmative injury determination, CBP will require, at the same time as importers would normally deposit estimated duties on the subject merchandise, a cash deposit equal to the estimated weighted-average dumping margin listed below.

The estimated weighted-average dumping margin is as follows:

Producer	Exporter	Estimated weighted-average dumping margin (percent)	Cash deposit rate (percent)
China-Wide Entity	China-Wide Entity	27.27	26.65

Critical Circumstances

With regard to the ITC’s negative critical circumstances determination on imports of rubber bands from China, we will instruct CBP to lift suspension and to refund any cash deposits made to secure the payment of estimated antidumping duties with respect to entries of rubber bands from China, entered, or withdrawn from warehouse, for consumption on or after June 8, 2018 (i.e., 90 days prior to the date of publication of the AD China Rubber Bands Prelim), but before September 6, 2018 (i.e., the date of publication of the AD China Rubber Bands Prelim).

CVD Order

On February 11, 2019, in accordance with section 705(d) of the Act, the ITC notified Commerce of its final determination that the industry in the United States producing rubber bands is materially injured within the meaning of section 705(b)(1)(A)(i) of the Act by reason of subsidized imports of rubber bands from China.⁵ Therefore, in accordance with section 705(c)(2) of the Act, we are issuing this CVD order.

As a result of the ITC’s final determination, in accordance with section 706(a) of the Act, Commerce will direct CBP to assess, upon further instruction by Commerce, countervailing duties on unliquidated entries of subject merchandise from China entered, or withdrawn from warehouse, for consumption on or after July 9, 2018, the date on which Commerce published the CVD China Rubber Bands Prelim in the Federal Register,⁶ and before November 6, 2018, the effective date on which Commerce instructed CBP to discontinue the suspension of liquidation in accordance with section 703(d) of the Act. Section 703(d) of the Act states that the suspension of liquidation pursuant to a preliminary determination may not remain in effect for more than 120 days.

Therefore, entries of subject merchandise from China made on or after November 6, 2018, and prior to the date of publication of the ITC’s final determination in the Federal Register are not subject to the assessment of countervailing duties due to Commerce’s discontinuation of the suspension of liquidation.

Suspension of Liquidation—CVD

In accordance with section 706 of the Act, Commerce will direct CBP to reinstitute the suspension of liquidation of subject merchandise from China, effective on the date of publication of the ITC’s final affirmative injury determination in the Federal Register, and to assess, upon further instruction by Commerce pursuant to section 706(a)(1) of the Act, countervailing duties for each entry of rubber bands in an amount based on the net countervailable subsidy rates for the subject merchandise. On or after the date of publication of the ITC’s final injury determination in the Federal Register, Commerce will instruct CBP to require, at the same time as importers would normally deposit estimated duties on the subject merchandise, a cash deposit for each entry of subject merchandise equal to the subsidy rates listed below. The all-others rate applies to all producers or exporters not specifically listed below, as appropriate.

Company	Subsidy rate (percent)
Graceful Imp. & Exp. Co., Ltd	125.77
Moyoung Trading Co., Ltd	125.77
Ningbo Syloon Imp & Exp Co., Ltd	125.77
All-Others	125.77

Critical Circumstances

With regard to the ITC’s negative critical circumstances determination on imports of rubber bands from China, we will instruct CBP to lift suspension and to refund any cash deposits made to secure the payment of estimated countervailing duties with respect to entries of rubber bands from China, entered, or withdrawn from warehouse, for consumption on or after April 10, 2018 (i.e., 90 days prior to the date of publication of the CVD China Rubber Bands Prelim), but before July 9, 2018 (i.e., the date of publication of the CVD China Rubber Bands Prelim).⁷

SUMMARY: The Department of Commerce (Commerce) preliminarily determines that Novolipetsk Steel (NLMK) did not make a bona fide sale during the period of review (POR) December 1, 2016, through November 30, 2017; therefore, we are preliminarily rescinding this administrative review. Interested parties are invited to comment on the preliminary results of this review.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Background

Commerce published the notice of initiation of this review on February 9,

2016.¹ Pursuant to section 751(a)(3)(A) of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended (the Act), Commerce extended these preliminary results by 90 days until December 4, 2018.² Commerce then extended the preliminary results by an additional 30 days until January 3, 2019.³

Commerce exercised its discretion to toll all deadlines affected by the partial federal government closure from December 22, 2018, through the resumption of operations on January 29, 2019.⁴ If the new deadline falls on a non-business day, in accordance with Commerce's practice, the deadline will become the next business day. The revised deadline for the preliminary results is now February 12, 2019.

Scope of the Order

The product covered by this administrative review is hot-rolled steel from Russia. The full text of the scope of the order is contained in the Preliminary Decision Memorandum.

Methodology

Commerce is conducting this review in accordance with section 751(a)(1)(B) and (2) of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended (the Act). For a full description of the methodology underlying our conclusions, see the Preliminary Decision Memorandum, which is hereby adopted by this notice. Preliminary Rescission of the Antidumping Administrative Review of NLMK

As discussed in the Bona Fide Sales Analysis Memorandum,⁵ Commerce preliminarily finds that the sale made by (Novolipetsk Steel) NLMK serving as the basis for this review is not a bona fide sale. Commerce reached this conclusion based on the totality of the record information surrounding NLMK's reported sale, including the sales price and quantity, the limited number of sales (i.e., one sale) that NLMK reported during the POR, and customer correspondence.

Because the non-bona fide sale was the only reported sale of subject merchandise during the POR, we find that NLMK had no reviewable transactions during this POR. Accordingly, we are preliminarily rescinding this administrative review.⁶ Given that the factual information used in our bona fides analysis of NLMK's sale involves business proprietary information, see the Bona Fide Sales Analysis Memorandum for a full discussion of the basis for our preliminary determination.

Disclosure and Public Comment

Interested parties may submit case briefs no later than 30 days after the date of publication of the preliminary results of review.⁷ Rebuttals to case briefs may be filed no later than five days after the briefs are filed.⁸ All rebuttal comments must be limited to comments raised in the case briefs.⁹
