

illegal discharges of oil from the commercial longline fishing vessel Jaxon T, now known as the St. Joseph, as well as related violations of the Coast Guard's pollution control regulations, including failure to provide sufficient capacity to retain oily bilge waste on board the vessel. As pertinent to the proposed settlement with Linh Fishery LLC, the complaint includes an injunctive relief claim under the Clean Water Act and a claim under the Federal Debt Collection Procedures Act concerning the alleged fraudulent conveyance of the Jaxon T after the oil discharge violations occurred.

Under the proposed partial consent decree, defendant Linh Fishery LLC will perform corrective measures to prevent future violations on the Jaxon T. Required actions include: (1) Making repairs to the vessel to reduce the quantity of oily waste generated during fishing voyages; (2) providing crewmembers with training on the proper handling of oily wastes; (3) documenting proper oily waste management and disposal after returning to port; and (4) submitting compliance reports to the Coast Guard and to the Department of Justice.

Notice of Determinations Regarding Eligibility To Apply for Trade Adjustment Assistance

In accordance with the Section 223 (19 U.S.C. 2273) of the Trade Act of 1974 (19 U.S.C. 2271, et seq.) (“Act”), as amended, the Department of Labor herein presents summaries of determinations regarding eligibility to apply for trade adjustment assistance under Chapter 2 of the Act (“TAA”) for workers by (TA-W) number issued during the period of December 1, 2018 through December 31, 2018. (This Notice primarily follows the language of the Trade Act. In some places however, changes such as the inclusion of subheadings, a reorganization of language, or “and,” “or,” or other words are added for clarification.)

Section 222(a)—Workers of a Primary Firm

In order for an affirmative determination to be made for workers of a primary firm and a certification issued regarding eligibility to apply for TAA, the group eligibility requirements under Section 222(a) of the Act (19 U.S.C. 2272(a)) must be met, as follows:

(1) The first criterion (set forth in Section 222(a)(1) of the Act, 19 U.S.C. 2272(a)(1)) is that a significant number or proportion of the workers in such workers’ firm (or “such firm”) have become totally or partially separated, or are threatened to become totally or partially separated; AND (2(A) or 2(B) below)

(2) The second criterion (set forth in Section 222(a)(2) of the Act, 19 U.S.C. 2272(a)(2)) may be satisfied by either (A)
