

ensure that the meetings proceed in a fair and orderly manner. The rules for taking evidence in an administrative proceeding will not apply to the public meetings. Panel members may question witnesses, but no cross-examination of witnesses will be permitted. The public meetings will be transcribed, and the transcripts will be posted on the respective public websites of the Board and the FDIC.² Information regarding the procedures for obtaining a copy of the transcripts will be announced at the public meetings.

Charlotte, North Carolina: All persons wishing to testify at the public meeting in Charlotte should submit a written request no later than 5:00 p.m. EDT on Monday, April 15, 2019. A request to testify at the Charlotte public meeting may be sent by mail to: Matthew Martin, Vice President, Research Department Microeconomics and Research Communications, Federal Reserve Bank of Richmond, 530 East Trade Street, Charlotte, North Carolina, 28202; by online form at: <https://fedsurvey2.frbatlanta.org/Survey.aspx?s=7169b12f832e42278c1789f8b8ff5524>; by email to: Publicmeeting.Charlotte@rich.frb.org; or by facsimile: 704-358-2300.

Atlanta, Georgia: All persons wishing to testify at the public meeting in Atlanta should submit a written request no later than 5:00 p.m. EDT on Tuesday, April 23, 2019. A request to testify at the Atlanta public meeting may be sent by mail to: Karen Leone de Nie, Vice President Community and Economic Development, Federal Reserve Bank of Atlanta, 1000 Peachtree Street NE, Atlanta, Georgia, 30309-4470; by online form at: <https://fedsurvey2.frbatlanta.org/SunTrustBBT-Meeting-Atl.aspx>; by email to: atlfedcomdev@atl.frb.org; or by facsimile: 404-498-8956.

The Board will provide a copy of each request to the FDIC.

The request to testify should include the following information: (i) A brief statement of the nature of the expected testimony (including whether the testimony will support or oppose the proposed transactions or provide other comment on them); (ii) the address and telephone number (email address and facsimile number, if available) of the person testifying; and (iii) the identification of any special needs, such as translation services, physical disabilities requiring assistance, or presentations requiring visual aids.

²Materials related to the applications will be made available on the Board's website <https://www.federalreserve.gov/foia/bbt-suntrust-application-materials.htm> and the FDIC's website <https://www.fdic.gov/regulations/applications/bbt-suntrust/>.

Translators will be provided to the extent available if a need for such services is noted in the request to testify. Persons interested only in attending the meetings, but not testifying, need not submit a written request to attend.

The Presiding Officers will prepare a schedule for persons wishing to testify and establish the order of presentation. To ensure an opportunity for all interested commenters to present their views, the Presiding Officers may limit the time for presentations and may establish other procedures related to the conduct of the public meetings as appropriate. Persons not listed on the schedule may be permitted to speak at the public meetings, if time permits, at the conclusion of the schedule of witnesses in the discretion of the Presiding Officers. Copies of testimony may, but need not, be filed with the Presiding Officers before a person's presentation.

All individuals who wish to attend either public meeting must present a valid, government-issued photo identification. In addition, X-ray and metal detection devices will be in use and there will be limitations on materials that may be brought into the building (i.e., no objects that could raise security or safety concerns).

The Board is extending the comment period on the Holding Company Application through the close of business on Friday, May 3, 2019. The FDIC also has determined that there is good cause to extend the comment period on the Bank Application through the close of business on Friday, May 3, 2019. The Board will make the public record of the Holding Company Application, including all comments received and the transcripts of the public meetings, available on the Board's public website. The FDIC will make the public record of the Bank Application, including all comments received and the transcripts of the public meetings, available on the FDIC's public website.

By order of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System, effective March 13, 2019.

Margaret McCloskey Shanks,
Deputy Secretary of the Board.

Dated at Washington, DC, on March 14, 2019.

Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation.

Valerie J. Best,
Assistant Executive Secretary.

DEPARTMENT OF HEALTH AND HUMAN SERVICES

Centers for Disease Control and Prevention

Statement of Organization, Functions, and Delegations of Authority

Part C (Centers for Disease Control and Prevention) of the Statement of Organization, Functions, and Delegations of Authority of the Department of Health and Human Services (45 FR 67772-76, dated October 14, 1980, and corrected at 45 FR 69296, October 20, 1980, as amended most recently at 83 FR 48424-48428, dated September 25, 2018) is amended to reflect the reorganization of the National Center for Health Statistics, Office of Public Health Scientific Services, Centers for Disease Control and Prevention. This reorganization will streamline the current organizational structure, improve the overall employee/supervisor ratio, eliminate workflow inefficiencies, and improve customer service.

I. Under Part C, Section C-B, Organization and Functions, make the following organizational change:

• Retitle the Office of Analysis and Epidemiology (CPCB) to the Division of Analysis and Epidemiology (CPCB).

II. Under Part C, Section C–B, Organization and Functions, make the following change:

• Division of Analysis and Epidemiology (CPCB). (1) Participates in the development of policy, long-range plans, and programs of the Center, with emphasis on advancing the use of Center data systems; (2) plans, directs, and coordinates the Analysis and Epidemiology Program of the Center; (3) conducts developmental and evaluation research and analysis in the areas of epidemiology, health status, health services utilization, health promotion, and health economics, including methodological issues related to conceptualization and measurement; (4) provides leadership and expertise in the application of statistical techniques to integrate, analyze and report data from multiple and diverse sources; (5) provides consultation and technical assistance to the Center, CDC, the Department and other public and private health agencies at the national and international level on activities on the analysis and interpretation of health statistics; (6) augments the methodological and policy analysis activities of the Center; and (7) focuses on complex methods, analyses, and tools that integrate health data from diverse sources, including research on measurement, linkage, and surveillance of population health and health promotion.

• Health Promotion Statistics Branch (CPCBB). (1) Develops policies, plans, and strategies for the implementation of surveillance and data systems in support of the Department's health promotion and disease prevention objectives; (2) coordinates the health promotion and disease prevention related data collection activities of the Center; (3) serves as liaison with the Department's Office of Disease Prevention and Health Promotion; (4) provides support and technical assistance to state and local health agencies in the areas of statistical assessment and the use of data for policy development and program planning; (5) coordinates Center activities that assess the progress on the elimination of health disparities; (6) establishes consensus-building processes involving CDC, the Department, state and local agencies, and the private sector to identify priority data gaps on national health promotion objectives and recommends solutions to fill these gaps; and (7) designs, develops, and implements computer data processing systems and software and produces statistical data for analysis.

• Measures Research and Evaluation Branch (CPCBD). (1) Develops and conducts a research program designed to examine significant public health problems, as well as the sources of data available and needed to inform their use in the evaluation of population health initiatives both in the U.S. and internationally; (2) uses statistical data from multiple sources, with an emphasis on Center data and the measures used to collect data for major areas of programmatic interest; (3) conducts multi-disciplinary research focusing on population health and functioning to examine areas of interest including methodological issues related to conceptualization and measurement; (4) collaborates with, and provides leadership, consultation and technical assistance to, others within the Center, the Federal government and internationally; and (5) prepares research and analytic reports for publication and dissemination.

• Data Linkage Methodology and Analysis Branch (CPCBE). (1) Plans, directs, and manages the Center's multi-faceted methodological research program on major public health issues including data linkage and geocoding activities; (2) develops and executes center-wide data linkage and geocoding activities to collect additional information to maximize the scientific value of the Center's population-based cross-sectional and longitudinal health surveys while maintaining respondent confidentiality; (3) develops, plans, and implements studies evaluating the methodology used for the Center's data linkage projects; (4) provides leadership and expert consultation to the Center's data divisions on best practices and methodologies used for data linkage; (5) provides consultation and technical assistance to the research community utilizing the NCHS survey linked data files; and (6) prepares methodological and research reports for publication and dissemination to support the Center's data linkage projects.

• Population Health Reporting and Dissemination Branch (CPCBG). (1) Serves as a focal point for a Center-wide analytical program aimed at the assessment and development of health data from multiple sources designed to facilitate the analysis of population health and emerging public health issues; (2) conducts and coordinates in-depth statistical analyses of special population groups relating to their health characteristics and their health care needs; (3) directs preparation of the Secretary's annual report, Health, United States, on the health status of the Nation to the President and the Congress in compliance with Section 308 of the PHS Act and other recurring and special reports requested by the Department; (4) provides leadership and expertise in the application of sophisticated statistical techniques related to the problem of integrating, analyzing, and reporting data from diverse sources; and (5) conducts research on selected aspects of health status and health services for publication and dissemination.

IV. Delegations of Authority: All delegations and redelegations of authority made to officials and employees of affected organizational components will continue in them or their successors pending further redelegation, provided they are consistent with this reorganization.

(Authority: 44 U.S.C. 3101).

Alex M. Azar II,

Secretary.
