In addition, notwithstanding any other provisions of law, no person shall generally be subject to penalty for failing to comply with a collection of information that does not display a valid Control Number. See 5 CFR 1320.5(a) and 1320.6.

Vacancy Posting for a District Chief Administrative Law Judge

Summary of Duties: The position of District Chief Administrative Law Judge is a field position within the organizational structure of the Office of Administrative Law Judges (OALJ) of the U.S. Department of Labor (DOL). The District Chief Judge position reports through one of the Associate Chief Judges to the Chief Judge, who reports to the Deputy Secretary of Labor. The District Office is composed of Administrative Law Judges, attorney advisors who serve as law clerks to the judges, and legal assistants. Each office operates self-sufficiently in that most administrative and support functions such as time keeping, procurement, travel, personnel, and case management and processing are handled at the local level, with general policy guidance provided by the National Office.

The District Chief Judge is responsible for providing the overall administrative and case management leadership necessary to assure the thorough and timely processing of all formal proceedings before the District Office. The District Chief Judge performs the full range of administrative functions, including the formulation of District Office budgetary and personnel resource needs, execution of applicable personnel policies and practices, and management of the case assignment, case monitoring, and hearing processes. In addition, the District Chief Judge is expected to carry out the full range of duties as an Administrative Law Judge, including presiding at hearings in some of the most sensitive, difficult and controversial proceedings that come before the office.
