Title: Minimum Security Devices and Procedures, Reports of Suspicious Activities, and Bank Secrecy Act Compliance Program.

OMB Control No.: 1557-0180.

Form Numbers: 8010-1/8010-9.

Abstract:

Minimum Security Devices and Procedures: Under 12 CFR 21.2, 21.4, 168.2, and 168.4, national banks and savings associations are required to designate a security officer who must develop and administer a written security program. The security officer shall report at least annually to the institution's board of directors on the effectiveness of the security program. The substance of the report shall be reflected in the board's minutes. These requirements ensure that the security officer is responsible for the security program and that institution management and the board of directors are aware of the content and effectiveness of the program. These requirements also ensure prudent institution management and institution safety and soundness.

Suspicious Activity Report (SAR): In 1992, the Department of the Treasury was granted broad authority to require suspicious transaction reporting under the Bank Secrecy Act (BSA). See, 31 U.S.C. 5318(g). The Financial Crimes Enforcement Network (FinCEN), which has been delegated the authority to administer the BSA, joined with the bank regulators in 1996 in requiring, on a consolidated form (i.e., SAR), reports of suspicious transactions. See, 31 CFR 1020.320(a) (formerly 31 CFR 103.18(a)). The filing of SARs is necessary to prevent and detect crimes involving depository institution funds, institution insiders, criminal transactions, and money laundering. These requirements are necessary to ensure institution safety and soundness.

Banks and savings associations are required to maintain a copy of any SAR filed and the original or business record equivalent of any supporting documentation for a period of five years. The documents are necessary for criminal investigations and prosecutions.

FinCEN and the Federal financial institution supervisory agencies² adopted the SAR form to simplify the process through which depository institutions inform their regulators and law enforcement about suspected criminal activity. The SAR form was updated in 1998, 2000, 2003, 2006, 2011, 2012, 2015, and 2018.

Procedures for Monitoring Bank Secrecy Act Compliance: Under 12 CFR 21.21, national banks and savings associations are required to develop and provide for the continued administration of a program reasonably designed to assure and monitor their compliance with the BSA and applicable Treasury regulations. The compliance program must be in writing, approved by the board of directors, and reflected in the minutes of the national bank or savings association. These requirements are necessary to ensure institution compliance with the BSA and applicable Treasury regulations.
