II. Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement of the Purpose of, and Statutory Basis for, the Proposed Rule Change

A. Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement of the Purpose of, and the Statutory Basis for, the Proposed Rule Change

1. Purpose

Section 302 of the Manual provides that listed companies are required to hold an annual shareholders' meeting during each fiscal year.

Section 303A.00 of the Manual provides that preferred and debt listings, passive business organizations in the form of trusts (such as royalty trusts) and derivative and special purpose securities are not required to comply with certain of the corporate governance requirements set forth in Section 303A.<sup>4</sup> Section 303A.00 does not exclude the obligation to hold an annual meeting pursuant to Section 302 from those requirements with which such issuers must comply.

Holders of non-voting preferred and debt securities, securities of passive business organizations (such as royalty trusts) and derivative and special purpose securities either do not have the right to elect directors at annual meetings or have the right to elect directors only in very limited circumstances. For example, holders of non-voting preferred securities may have the right to temporarily elect directors if dividends on such securities have not been paid for a specified period of time. Absent such special circumstances, in no event do holders of the securities listed above elect directors on an annual basis. Despite the fact that there is no matter with respect to which holders of these securities have an annual voting right under state law or their governing documents, NYSE rules currently do not exclude the issuers of <sup>4</sup> To the extent that Rule 10A-3 under the Act applies to (i) companies listing only preferred or debt securities, or (ii) passive business organizations, such entities are required to comply with the requirements of Section 303A.06 (Audit Committee) and certain provisions of 303A.12(b) (Certification Requirements).
