Rule 204-3

Notice is hereby given that pursuant to the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995 (44 U.S.C. 3501 et seq.) the Securities and Exchange Commission ("Commission") is soliciting comments on the collection of information summarized below. The Commission plans to submit this existing collection of information to the Office of Management and Budget for extension and approval.

The title for the collection of information is "Rule 204-3 (17 CFR 275.204-3) under the Investment Advisers Act of 1940." (15 U.S.C. 80b). Rule 204-3, the "brochure rule," requires advisers to deliver their brochures and brochure supplements at the start of an advisory relationship and to deliver annually thereafter the full updated brochure or a summary of material changes to their brochure. The rule also requires that advisers deliver an amended brochure or brochure supplement (or just a statement describing the amendment) to clients only when disciplinary information in the brochure or supplement becomes materially inaccurate. The brochure assists the client in determining whether to retain, or continue employing, the adviser. The information that Rule 204-3 requires to be contained in the brochure is also used by the Commission and staff in its enforcement, regulatory, and examination programs. This collection of information is found at 17 CFR 275.204-3 and is mandatory.

The respondents to this information collection are investment advisers registered with the Commission. Our latest data indicate that there were 13,173 advisers registered with the Commission as of March 31, 2019. The Commission has estimated that compliance with rule 204-3 imposes a burden of approximately 3.7 hours annually based on advisers having a median of 78 clients each. Based on this figure, the Commission estimates a total annual burden of 49,090 hours for this collection of information.

Written comments are invited on: (a) Whether the collection of information is necessary for the proper performance of the functions of the agency, including whether the information will have practical utility; (b) the accuracy of the agency's estimate of the burden of the collection of information; (c) ways to enhance the quality, utility, and clarity of the information collected; and (d) ways to minimize the burden of the collection of information on respondents, including through the use of automated collection techniques or other forms of information technology. Consideration will be given to comments and suggestions submitted in writing within 60 days of this publication.

Please direct your written comments to Charles Riddle, Acting Director/Chief Information Officer, Securities and Exchange Commission, C/O Candace Kenner, 100 F Street NE, Washington, DC 20549; or send an email to: PRA_Mailbox@sec.gov.

³² Applicants are not requesting and the Commission is not providing any relief for transaction fees received in connection with any Co-Investment Transaction.

Dated: May 21, 2019.

Deputy Secretary.

Accordingly, the Commission is issuing this notice to designate:

See Securities Exchange Act Release No. 84875 (December 19, 2018), 84 FR 5202 (February 20, 2019). On February 15, 2019, the New York Stock Exchange LLC, the NASDAQ Stock Market, LLC, Cboe BZX Exchange, Inc., and other affiliated entities (collectively, the “petitioners”) filed petitions in the United States Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia Circuit (“Court of Appeals”) to review the validity of Rule 610T. Petitioners also filed with the Commission motions to stay implementation of Rule 610T pending resolution of their petitions for review. On March 28, 2019, the Commission issued an order granting, in part, petitioners’ motions for a stay of Rule 610T pending a decision by the Court of Appeals and further order of the Commission. That order stayed the Pilot and post-Pilot periods identified in Rule 610T(c)(1)(ii) and (iii) in their entirety, stayed the pre-Pilot period’s data-reporting and public disclosure requirements, see Rule 610T(d), but provided that the remainder of Rule 610T—including the pre-Pilot period identified in Rule 610T(c)(i)(1)—otherwise would become effective in the ordinary course and on further notice by the Commission. See In the Matter of Rule 610T of Regulation NMS, Order Issuing Stay, Securities Exchange Act Release No. 85447 (March 28, 2019) (“Partial Stay Order”).

Following a decision by the Court of Appeals regarding the petitions for review, the Commission may issue further notices in accordance with Rule 610T(b)(1) and (c)(2).⁶

Assistant Secretary.
