

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: This ICR seeks approval under the PRA for revisions to the Form ETA-9141, Application for Prevailing Wage Determination; the instructions accompanying this form; and a new appendix to the Form ETA-9141, Appendix A, Request for Additional Worksite(s) for DOL's issuance of prevailing wages for an employer's additional worksites. This information collection has been classified as a revision. The proposed form changes will include the reorganization of the form to better correspond with related forms for the temporary and permanent employment certification programs. Also, the proposed form changes will collect: (1) Attorney or agent information; and (2) alternative requirements in a standardized format. The proposed revisions will better align information collection requirements with DOL's current regulatory framework, provide greater clarity to employers on regulatory and procedural requirements, standardize and streamline information collection to reduce the employer's time and burden when preparing applications, and promote greater efficiency and transparency in prevailing wages determinations. The proposed Appendix A, Request for Additional Worksite(s), will provide employers with a standardized format to request prevailing wage determinations for additional worksites. Appendix A will also enable DOL efficiently to determine prevailing wages for job opportunities with additional worksites. With the 30-day proposal, DOL has modified Appendix A to include sections "for official government use only," which DOL will complete to provide employers with prevailing wage details for multiple worksites. The information collection is required by the Immigration and Nationality Act (INA), sections 103(a)(6); 203(b)(3); 212(a)(5)(A); 212(n), (p), (t); and 214(c) [8 U.S.C. 1103(a)(6); 1153(b)(3); 1182(a)(5)(A); 1182(n), (p), (t); and 1184(c)]; 8 CFR 214.2(h) and 20 CFR 655.10, 655.731, and 656.40, which establish procedures for employers seeking prevailing wages.

The Form ETA-9141 is used to determine the prevailing wages for job opportunities for which employers seek to hire foreign workers in the H-2B, H-1B, H-1B1, and E-3 temporary employment certification programs and the permanent employment certification program (PERM program). Prior to submitting foreign labor certification applications to the DOL for the H-2B and Permanent foreign labor certification programs, employers must obtain from DOL a prevailing wage for their job opportunities based on the occupation and location of intended employment. Employers may also request a prevailing wage for H-1B, H-1B1, and E-3 labor condition applications. The information DOL collects from employers on the Form ETA-9141 serves as the basis by which DOL determines the prevailing wages employers must pay foreign workers under the above foreign labor certification programs to ensure employment of the foreign workers will not adversely affect the wages of similarly employed U.S. workers.

This information collection is subject to the PRA. A Federal agency generally cannot conduct or sponsor a collection of information, and the public is generally not required to respond to an information collection, unless it is approved by the OMB under the PRA and displays a currently valid OMB Control Number. In addition, notwithstanding any other provisions of law, no person shall generally be subject to penalty for failing to comply with a collection of information that does not display a valid Control Number. See 5 CFR 1320.5(a) and 1320.6. The DOL obtains OMB approval for this information collection under Control Number 1205-0508. The current approval is scheduled to expire on May 31, 2019; however, the DOL notes that existing information collection requirements submitted to the OMB receive a month-to-month extension while they undergo review. New requirements would only take effect upon OMB approval. For additional substantive information about this ICR, see the related notice published in the Federal Register on February 12, 2019 (84 FR 3494).

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: This ICR seeks approval under the PRA for revisions to the H-2A Temporary Agricultural Labor Certification Program information collection. This information collection has been classified as a revision because the DOL is proposing modifications to: Align information collection requirements with its current regulatory framework better; provide greater clarity to employers on regulatory requirements; standardize and streamline information collection to reduce employer time and burden preparing applications; and promote greater efficiency and transparency in the ETA's review and issuance of labor certification decisions under the H-2A visa program. The Immigration and Nationality Act (INA) and the Department of Homeland Security's (DHS) and DOL's regulations authorize this information collection. See INA Sections 101(a)(15)(H)(ii)(a), 214(c), and 218 (8 U.S.C. 1101(a)(15)(H)(ii)(a), 1184(c), and 1188) and 8 CFR 214.2(h)(5) and 20 CFR 655, subpart B.

The H-2A visa program enables employers to bring nonimmigrant foreign workers to the United States to perform agricultural work of a seasonal or temporary nature as defined in 8

U.S.C. 1101(a)(15)(H)(ii)(a). Before an employer can file a petition with DHS to import temporary workers as H-2A nonimmigrants, the INA and DHS regulations require an employer first to obtain a determination from DOL, certifying whether a qualified U.S. worker is available to fill the job opportunity described in the employer's petition for a temporary agricultural worker and whether a foreign worker's employment in the job opportunity will adversely affect the wages or working conditions of similarly employed U.S. workers. See 8 U.S.C. 1188, INA section 218; 8 CFR 214.2(h)(5)(i), (ii) and (iv)(B). DOL's regulations establish the processes by which an employer must obtain a temporary labor certification from DOL and the rights and obligations of workers and employers. See 20 CFR part 655, subpart B.

This ICR includes the collection of information related to the temporary labor certification process and agricultural clearance order process in the H-2A program. The information contained in the application Form ETA-9142A, H-2A Application for Temporary Employment Certification, and the job order Form ETA-790/790A, H-2A Agricultural Clearance Order, serve as the basis for the Secretary of Labor's determination that qualified U.S. workers are not available to perform the services or labor needed by the employer and that the wages and working conditions of similarly employed U.S. workers will not be adversely affected by the employment of H-2A workers. Employers use Appendix A of the Form ETA-9142A to attest that they will comply with all of the terms, conditions, and obligations of the H-2A program.

This information collection is subject to the PRA. A Federal agency generally cannot conduct or sponsor a collection of information, and the public is generally not required to respond to an information collection, unless it is approved by the OMB under the PRA and displays a currently valid OMB Control Number. In addition, notwithstanding any other provisions of law, no person shall generally be subject to penalty for failing to comply with a collection of information that does not display a valid Control Number. See 5 CFR 1320.5(a) and 1320.6. DOL obtains OMB approval for this information collection under Control Number 1205-0466. The current approval is scheduled to expire on May 31, 2019; however, DOL notes that existing information collection requirements submitted to the OMB receive a month-to-month extension while they undergo review. New requirements would only take effect upon OMB approval. For additional substantive information about this ICR, see the related notice published in the Federal Register on October 25, 2018 (83 FR 53911).
