SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION

[Release No. 34-85935; File No. SR-MRX-2019-08]

Self-Regulatory Organizations; Nasdaq MRX, LLC; Order Approving a Proposed Rule Change To Adopt Complex Order Functionality

May 24, 2019.

I. Introduction

On April 12, 2019, Nasdaq MRX, LLC ("MRX" or "Exchange") filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission ("Commission"), pursuant to Section 19(b)(1) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 ("Act")¹ and Rule 19b-4 thereunder,² a proposal to adopt rules to provide for the trading of Complex Orders. The proposed rule change was published for comment in the Federal Register on April 23, 2019.³ The Commission received no comment letters regarding the proposed rule change. This order approves the proposed rule change.

II. Description of the Proposed Rule Change

MRX proposes to adopt rules governing the trading of Complex Orders.⁴ The proposed rules address, among other things, the order types, auction and crossing mechanisms, trading increments, priority, execution, opening process, risk protections, obvious error provisions, and data feeds for Complex Orders. MRX states that the proposed Complex Order functionality is identical to the Complex Order functionality currently available on Nasdaq ISE, LLC ("ISE"), and that the proposed rules are identical to corresponding ISE rules.⁵ As described more fully in the Notice,⁶ MRX proposes to, among other things: (1)

⁴ The term "Complex Order" includes Complex Options Orders, Stock-Option Orders, and Stock-Complex Orders. Complex Options Orders, Stock-Option Orders, and Stock-Complex Orders are orders for Complex Options Strategies, Stock-Option Strategies, and Stock-Complex Strategies, respectively. See proposed MRX Rule 722(a)(5). A Complex Options Strategy is the simultaneous purchase and/or sale of two or more different options series in the same underlying security, for the same account, in a ratio that is equal to or greater than one-to-three (.333) and less than or equal to three-to-one (3.00) and for the purpose of executing a particular investment strategy. Only those Complex Options Strategies with no more than the applicable number of legs, as determined by the Exchange on a class-by-class basis, are eligible for processing. A Stock-Option Strategy is the purchase or sale of a stated number of units of an underlying stock or a security convertible into the underlying stock ("convertible security") coupled with the purchase or sale of options contract(s) on the opposite side of the market representing either (A) the same number of units of the underlying stock or convertible security, or (B) the number of units of the underlying stock necessary to create a delta neutral position, but in no case in a ratio greater than eight-to-one (8.00), where the ratio represents the total number of units of the underlying stock or convertible security in the option leg to the total number of units of the underlying stock or convertible security in the stock leg. A Stock-Complex Strategy is the purchase or sale of a stated number of units of an underlying stock or a security convertible into the underlying stock ("convertible security") coupled with the purchase or sale of a Complex Options Strategy on the opposite side of the market representing either (A) the same number of units of the underlying stock or convertible security, or (B) the number of units of the underlying stock necessary to create a delta neutral position, but in no case in a ratio greater than eight-to-one (8.00), where the ratio represents the total number of units of the underlying stock or convertible security in the option legs to the total number of units of the underlying stock or convertible security in the stock leg. Only those Stock-Complex Strategies with no more than the applicable number of legs, as determined by the Exchange on a class-by-class basis, are eligible for processing. See proposed MRX Rules 722(a)(1), (2), and (3).

¹³ 17 CFR 240.19b-4(f)(6). In addition, Rule 19b-4(f)(6) requires a self-regulatory organization to give the Commission written notice of its intent to file the proposed rule change at least five business days prior to the date of filing of the proposed rule change, or such shorter time as designated by the Commission. The Exchange has satisfied this requirement.

Adopt new MRX Rule 722 to describe the availability of certain order types for Complex Orders and the priority and execution of Complex Orders;⁷ (2) add a defined term, “Professional Customer,” in MRX Rule 100(a)(54A);⁸ (3) amend MRX Rule 714 to exclude Complex Order transactions from the anti-internalization protection;⁹ (4) amend MRX Rule 715 to define “legging orders” and “QCC with Stock Orders” and to revise the Ouch to Trade Options and Specialized Quote Feed protocols to include complex instruments;¹⁰ (5) add a Complex Facilitation Mechanism and Complex Solicited Order Mechanism to MRX Rule 716;¹¹ (6) amend MRX Rule 718(a)(5) to adopt a new Nasdaq MRX Spread Feed that will provide information regarding Complex Orders;¹² (7) amend MRX Rule 720, relating to the nullification of trades and obvious errors, to address transactions in Complex Orders;¹³ (8) revise MRX Rule 721 to provide for Complex Customer Cross Orders, Complex Qualified Contingent Cross Orders, and Qualified Contingent Cross Orders with Stock;¹⁴ (9) add a new Complex Price Improvement Mechanism to MRX Rule

723;¹⁵ and (10) adopt new MRX Rule 724 to establish various risk protections for Complex Orders.¹⁶ The proposal also includes non-substantive and technical changes related to the adoption of the Complex Order functionality.

III. Discussion and Commission Findings

After careful review, the Commission finds that the proposed rule change is consistent with the requirements of the Act,¹⁷ and the rules and regulations thereunder applicable to a national securities exchange.¹⁸ In particular, the Commission finds that the proposed rule change is consistent with Section 6(b)(5) of the Act,¹⁹ which requires, among other things, that the rules of a national securities exchange be designed to prevent fraudulent and manipulative acts and practices, to promote just and equitable principles of trade, to remove impediments to and perfect the mechanism of a free and open market and a national market system, and, in general, to protect investors and the public interest, and that the rules are not designed to permit unfair discrimination between customers, issuers, brokers, or dealers. The Commission believes that the proposed rules are consistent with the Act because they are substantially identical to ISE’s rules governing the trading of Complex Orders, which the Commission has reviewed previously. Because they are substantially identical to ISE’s Complex Order rules, MRX’s proposed rules do not raise new or novel regulatory issues. The Commission believes that the proposed rules could assist market participants in making informed decisions regarding the trading of Complex Orders on MRX, including the order types, priority, auction and crossing mechanisms, and risk protections available for Complex Orders traded on MRX.

IV. Conclusion

It is therefore ordered, pursuant to Section 19(b)(2) of the Act,²⁰ that the
