On February 25, 2014, ArcelorMittal filed a petition with the United States Court of Appeals for the Seventh Circuit challenging EPA's disapproval of Indiana's SIP revision which would have removed the emissions limit for SO₂ from the blast furnace gas flare at ArcelorMittal's steel mill in Porter County, Indiana. ArcelorMittal Burns Harbor LLC v. EPA (14–1412, 7th Cir.). Under the proposed settlement agreement, the parties agree to take certain specified actions.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:I. Additional Information About the Proposed Settlement Agreement

The proposed settlement agreement would resolve the case filed by ArcelorMittal challenging EPA Region 5's disapproval of the State of Indiana's SIP revision, submitted on December 10, 2009. EPA issued a final rule disapproving the SIP revision on December 27, 2013. On February 25, 2014, ArcelorMittal filed a petition for review of EPA's disapproval action in the United States Circuit Court of Appeals for the Seventh Circuit. ArcelorMittal Burns Harbor LLC v. EPA (No. 14–1412). The State of Indiana intervened in the case on petitioner's behalf and is also a party to the settlement agreement.

Under the terms of the proposed settlement agreement, Indiana agrees to submit to EPA a SIP revision which contains numeric emissions limits, a blast furnace gas testing protocol, and other specified provisions. EPA agrees to propose and take final action on the SIP submittal. If EPA approves a SIP submittal with numeric emissions limits and blast furnace gas testing protocol which are identical to those in the agreement, and otherwise contains terms substantially consistent with those in the agreement, ArcelorMittal agrees to dismiss its petition for review with prejudice. The proposed settlement agreement also provides that nothing in the settlement agreement limits the discretion of EPA to alter, amend, or revise its action under the agreement, nor does the agreement limit or modify any discretion afforded EPA by the Act or by general principles of administrative law. See the proposed settlement agreement for specific details.
