The public record for this investigation may be viewed on the Commission's electronic docket (EDIS) at <https://edis.usitc.gov>. Hearing-impaired persons are advised that information on this matter can be obtained by contacting the Commission TDD terminal on (202) 205-1810.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: The Commission instituted this investigation on January 18, 2018, based on a complaint filed by Qualcomm Incorporated of San Diego, California. 83 FR 834 (Jan. 8, 2018). The complaint alleged violations of section 337 of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended, 19 U.S.C. 1337, in the importation into the United States, the sale for importation, or the sale within the United States after importation of articles that infringe claims 1, 7, 8, 10, 11, 17, and 18 of U.S. Patent No. 9,154,356 ("the '356 patent"); claim 4 of U.S. Patent No. 9,473,336 ("the '336 patent"); claims 1, 5-8, 12, 16-18, and 21-22 of U.S. Patent No. 8,063,674 ("the '674 patent"); claims 1-4, 7-9, 11, 17, 20-23, 31-33, and 36 of U.S. Patent No. 7,693,002; and claims 1-3, 10-12, 18, and 22-24 of U.S. Patent No. 9,552,633. 83 FR at 834. The notice of investigation named as the respondent Apple Inc. of Cupertino, California. Id. at 835. The Office of Unfair Import Investigations was also named as a party. Id.

Based on withdrawal of numerous asserted patent claims, see 19 CFR 210.21(a), the investigation had narrowed to claims 1 and 17 of the '356 patent; claim 4 of the '336 patent; and claims 1 and 8 of the '674 patent. Order No. 37 (Aug. 27, 2018), not reviewed, Notice (Sept. 20, 2018); Order No. 43 (Oct. 3, 2018), not reviewed, Notice (Oct. 29, 2018).

On March 26, 2019, the presiding administrative law judge ("ALJ") issued the final initial determination ("final ID"), which found a violation of section 337 as to claim 1 of the '674 patent, but no violation of section 337 as to the other asserted patent claims.

On April 8, 2019, Qualcomm and Apple filed petitions for Commission review of the final ID. On April 16, 2019, the Commission investigative attorney ("IA") filed a response to the petitions for review. On April 17, 2019, Qualcomm and Apple filed a joint motion to stay all deadlines in the investigation on the basis of the parties' settlement. On April 19, 2019, the Commission issued a notice granting that motion.

The Commission's April 19, 2019 notice requested that the private parties file a motion to terminate by April 26, 2019, and Qualcomm and Apple complied. The IA concluded that the motion did not comply with Commission rules, including Commission Rules 201.6 and 210.21(b), 19 CFR 201.6, 210.21(b), because it omitted necessary material and overredacted material that is not confidential business information. Qualcomm, Apple, and the IA moved to extend the deadline for IA's response to the motion to terminate to provide Qualcomm and Apple with additional time to amend their motion to terminate and to address the IA's concerns. The Commission granted the extension motion on May 9, 2019.

On May 13, 2019, Qualcomm and Apple filed an amended motion to terminate. On May 21, 2019, the IA responded in partial opposition, explaining that the revised motion still did not comply with Commission rules concerning the redaction of information. Following that partial opposition, the IA coordinated with the private parties to obtain a filing from the private parties in compliance with Commission rules.

On July 24, 2019, the Commission extended the target date for completion of the investigation to August 29, 2019, and required Qualcomm and Apple to file a rules-compliant motion to terminate the investigation no later than August 8, 2019. On August 8, 2019, Qualcomm and Apple filed a joint motion to supplement their earlier amended joint motion to terminate the investigation. On August 16, 2019, the IA responded in support of the motion.

The Commission finds that Qualcomm's and Apple's motion, as amended and supplemented, is proper in form and complies with Commission Rules. See 19 CFR 201.6(a), 210.21(b). The Commission further finds that termination of the investigation will not adversely affect the public interest. Accordingly, the Commission has determined to grant the amended and supplemented motion. The Commission hereby terminates the investigation.

The authority for the Commission's determination is contained in section 337 of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended (19 U.S.C. 1337), and in Part 210 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure (19 CFR part 210).

By order of the Commission.

Issued: August 20, 2019.

Lisa Barton,

Secretary to the Commission.

The complainant requests that the Commission issue a general exclusion order, or alternatively, a limited exclusion order, cease and desist orders, and impose a bond upon respondents' alleged infringing articles during the 60-day Presidential review period pursuant to 19 U.S.C. 1337(j).

Proposed respondents, other interested parties, and members of the public are invited to file comments on any public interest issues raised by the complaint or § 210.8(b) filing. Comments should address whether issuance of the relief specifically requested by the complainant in this investigation would affect the public health and welfare in the United States, competitive conditions in the United States economy, the production of like or directly competitive articles in the United States, or United States consumers.

In particular, the Commission is interested in comments that:

(i) Explain how the articles potentially subject to the requested remedial orders are used in the United States;

(ii) identify any public health, safety, or welfare concerns in the United States relating to the requested remedial orders;

(iii) identify like or directly competitive articles that complainant, its licensees, or third parties make in the United States which could replace the subject articles if they were to be excluded;

(iv) indicate whether complainant, complainant's licensees, and/or third party suppliers have the capacity to replace the volume of articles potentially subject to the requested exclusion order and/or a cease and desist order within a commercially reasonable time; and

(v) explain how the requested remedial orders would impact United States consumers.

Written submissions on the public interest must be filed no later than by close of business, eight calendar days after the date of publication of this notice in the Federal Register. There will be further opportunities for comment on the public interest after the issuance of any final initial determination in this investigation. Any written submissions on other issues must also be filed by no later than the close of business, eight calendar days after publication of this notice in the Federal Register. Complainant may file replies to any written submissions no later than three calendar days after the date on which any initial submissions were due. Any submissions and replies filed in response to this Notice are limited to five (5) pages in length, inclusive of attachments.

Persons filing written submissions must file the original document electronically on or before the deadlines stated above and submit 8 true paper copies to the Office of the Secretary by noon the next day pursuant to § 210.4(f) of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure (19 CFR 210.4(f)).
