Privacy Act of 1974; Systems of Records

AGENCY: Office of Government Ethics (OGE).

ACTION: Notice of a modified system of records.

Mail, Hand Delivery/Courier: Office of Government Ethics, 1201 New York Avenue NW, Suite 500, Attention: Jennifer Matis, Associate Counsel, Washington, DC 20005-3917.

Instructions: Comments may be posted on OGE's website, www.oge.gov. Sensitive personal information, such as account numbers or Social Security numbers, should not be included. Comments generally will not be edited to remove any identifying or contact information before posting.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Jennifer Matis at the U.S. Office of Government Ethics; telephone: 202-482-9216; TTY: 800-877-8339; FAX: 202-482-9237; Email: jmatis@oge.gov.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: In accordance with the Privacy Act of 1974, 5 U.S.C. 552a, this document provides public notice that OGE is proposing to revise and update the OGE/GOVT-2 Governmentwide system of records in several respects. A Governmentwide system of records is a system of records where one agency (in this case, OGE) has regulatory authority over records in the custody of multiple agencies and the agency with regulatory authority publishes a SORN that applies to all of the records regardless of their custodial location.

OGE proposes to add two new routine uses as required by OMB Memorandum "Preparing for and Responding to a Breach of Personally Identifiable Information," M-17-12, (January 3, 2017). These new routine uses allow agencies to disclose information when necessary to respond to a suspected or confirmed breach or to prevent, minimize, or remedy harm resulting from such a breach.

OGE proposes to change the description of the categories of individuals covered by the system of records to make it more clear and easy to understand. By eliminating much of the technical description, the new language is more concise and consistent with plain language goals. No substantive change in the categories of individuals covered by the system of records is proposed. Likewise, OGE proposes to update the retention and disposal information to reflect the current General Records Schedule retention and disposal requirements for these records.

OGE proposes to modify routine uses (e.) (formerly routine use (f.)) and (g.) (formerly routine use (h.)) and remove the old routine use (b.) in accordance with OMB and Department of Justice guidance and applicable case law. The remaining routine uses have been re-designated accordingly.

Finally, the changes will update the authority for maintenance of the system, the categories of records in the system, and the administrative, technical, and physical safeguards, update the system manager and notification procedure in accordance with OGE's current organizational structure, clarify the language in the "Purpose" section, and make minor editorial changes.

Accordingly, the Office of Government Ethics is publishing the following notice of a proposed revised Governmentwide system of records covering Executive Branch Confidential Financial Disclosure Reports:

j. To disclose information to another Federal agency or Federal entity, when the agency maintaining the record determines that information from this system of records is reasonably necessary to assist the recipient agency or entity in (1) responding to a suspected or confirmed breach or (2) preventing, minimizing, or remedying the risk of harm to individuals, the recipient agency or entity (including its information systems, programs, and operations), the Federal Government, or national security, resulting from a suspected or confirmed breach.

Note: When an agency is requested to furnish records in this system of records to the Director or other authorized officials of the Office of Government Ethics (OGE), such a disclosure is to be considered as made to those officers and employees of the agency which co-maintains the records who have a need for the records in the performance of their official duties in accordance with the Ethics in Government Act of 1978, 5 U.S.C. app., and other ethics-related laws, Executive orders, and regulations conferring pertinent authority on OGE, pursuant to the provisions of the Privacy Act at 5 U.S.C. 552a(b)(1).

OFFICE OF GOVERNMENT ETHICS

Privacy Act of 1974; Systems of Records

AGENCY: Office of Government Ethics (OGE).

ACTION: Notice of a modified system of records.

SUMMARY: OGE proposes to revise an existing Governmentwide system of records under the Privacy Act, covering Executive Branch Personnel Public Financial Disclosure Reports and Other Name-Retrieved Ethics Program Records.

DATES: This action will be effective without further notice on November 8, 2019 unless comments received before this date would result in a contrary determination.

ADDRESSES: Comments may be submitted to OGE by any of the following methods:

Email: usoge@oge.gov (Include reference to "OGE/GOVT-1" in the subject line of the message.)

Mail, Hand Delivery/Courier: Office of Government Ethics, 1201 New York Avenue NW, Suite 500, Attention: Jennifer Matis, Associate Counsel, Washington, DC 20005-3917.

Instructions: Comments may be posted on OGE's website, www.oge.gov. Sensitive personal information, such as account numbers or Social Security numbers, should not be included. Comments generally will not be edited to remove any identifying or contact information before posting.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Jennifer Matis at the U.S. Office of Government Ethics; telephone: 202-482-9216; TTY: 800-877-8339; FAX: 202-482-9237; Email: jmatis@oge.gov.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: In accordance with the Privacy Act of 1974, 5 U.S.C. 552a, this document provides public notice that OGE is proposing to revise and update the OGE/GOVT-1 Governmentwide system of records in several respects. A Governmentwide system of records is a system of records where one agency (in this case, OGE) has regulatory authority over records in the custody of multiple agencies and the agency with regulatory authority publishes a system of records notice that applies to all of the records regardless of their custodial location.

OGE proposes to add or modify several routine uses to allow for greater transparency into executive branch ethics records. Specifically, the new routine use (l.) permits OGE to make public without restriction a certificate of divestiture issued by OGE. The new routine use (m.) permits OGE to make public without restriction waivers of the requirements contained in Executive Order 13770 "Ethics Commitments by Executive Branch Appointees" (January 28, 2017) or any superseding Executive order. OGE also proposes to modify routine use (k.) (formerly routine use (l.)) to clarify that certifications of ethics agreement compliance may be disclosed in the same manner as the ethics agreements themselves. Notwithstanding any of these changes, however, OGE will continue to release documents only to the extent consistent with 5 CFR 2634.603(b).

These changes further the purposes of the Freedom of Information Act, as amended, 5 U.S.C. 552, and the Office of Management and Budget's (OMB) Open Government Directive, M-10-06, (December 8, 2009). OGE's prevention mission involves engaging the public to inform them about the systems in place to detect and resolve conflicts of interests of their Government leaders. This, in turn, allows the public to engage in overseeing the integrity of its Government and increases public confidence in Government decisionmaking. Accordingly, promoting transparency into the executive branch ethics program is also a key element of OGE's 2018-2022 Strategic Plan, which sets forth strategic objectives to Inform the Public about OGE and the Executive Branch Ethics Program (Strategic Objective 4.1) and Make Ethics Information Publicly Available (Strategic Objective 4.2). Moreover, OGE's stakeholders, including non-governmental organizations, Congress, and the general public, have expressed interest in increased transparency into the ethics commitments made by executive branch officials.

In addition to these changes promoting transparency, OGE proposes to modify routine use (h.) (formerly routine use (i.)) to explicitly indicate that statements notifying an employee's supervising ethics office of the commencement of negotiations for future employment or compensation, or of an agreement for future employment or compensation, may be disclosed to reviewing officials in a new office, department, or agency when an employee transfers or is detailed from one covered position to another. These statements, mandated by the Representative Louise McIntosh Slaughter Stop Trading on Congressional Knowledge Act (STOCK Act), Public Law 112-105 (2012), are commonly called "STOCK Act notifications." It is OGE's position that such disclosures are currently permitted
