

because the relative benefits received by each are approximately equal.

The Department's November 15, 2006, notice also included its determination that wage and claim information disclosed to HHS for purposes of the National Directory of New Hires (NDNH) is protected by a "security plan" that provides safeguards adequate to meet the requirements of 20 CFR 603.9. 71 FR 66556. Laws governing information in the NDNH impose strict controls on redisclosure and disposal of information. See, e.g., 42 U.S.C. 653(i), (j), (l), and (m). HHS provides NDNH information on reported new hire dates, which State UC agencies use to conduct cross matches to identify potential improper UC payments to individuals who have returned to work or failed to report earnings. With the current notice, the Department recognizes that the exchange of information between State UC agencies and HHS for these purposes meets the requirements of 20 CFR 603.8(d) because the relative benefits received by each are approximately equal.

This notice is published to inform the public of the Department's determination that it is not necessary for State UC agencies to satisfy the agreement requirements of 20 CFR 603.10 for the disclosure of confidential UC information to these two Federal agencies.

John Pallasch,

Assistant Secretary for Employment and Training.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: This ICR seeks to extend PRA authority for the Claim for Reimbursement-Assisted Reemployment information collection. The Federal Employees' Compensation Act (FECA), in relevant part, provides vocational rehabilitation services to eligible injured Federal employees to facilitate their return to work. The costs of providing these vocational rehabilitation services are paid from the Federal Employees' Compensation Fund, and annual appropriations language provides the OWCP with legal authority to use amounts from the Fund to reimburse private sector employers for a portion of the salary of reemployed disabled Federal workers hired through the OWCP Assisted Reemployment Program. Employers submit Form CA-2231 to claim reimbursement for wages paid under the Assisted Reemployment Program. Federal Employees' Compensation Act section 8104(a) and the Consolidated Appropriations Act of 2016 authorize this information collection. See 5 U.S.C. 8104(a) and Public Law 114-113.

This information collection is subject to the PRA. A Federal agency generally cannot conduct or sponsor a collection of information, and the public is generally not required to respond to an information collection, unless the OMB under the PRA approves it and displays a currently valid OMB Control Number. In addition, notwithstanding any other provisions of law, no person shall generally be subject to penalty for failing to comply with a collection of information that does not display a valid Control Number. See 5 CFR 1320.5(a) and 1320.6. The DOL obtains OMB approval for this information collection under Control Number 1240-0018.

OMB authorization for an ICR cannot be for more than three (3) years without renewal, and the current approval for this collection is scheduled to expire on September 30, 2019. The DOL seeks to extend PRA authorization for this information collection for three (3) more years, without any change to existing requirements. The DOL notes that existing information collection requirements submitted to the OMB receive a month-to-month extension while they undergo review.
