SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: Under the PRA (44 U.S.C. 3501-3521), Federal Agencies must obtain approval from the Office of Management and Budget (OMB) for each collection of information they conduct or sponsor. "Collection of information" is defined in 44 U.S.C. 3502(3) and 5 CFR 1320.3(c) and includes Agency requests or requirements that members of the public submit reports, keep records, or provide information to a third party. Section 3506(c)(2)(A) of the PRA (44 U.S.C. 3506(c)(2)(A)) requires Federal Agencies to provide a 60-day notice in the Federal Register concerning each proposed collection of information, including each proposed extension of an existing collection of information, before submitting the collection to OMB for approval. To comply with this requirement, FDA is publishing notice of the proposed collection of information set forth in this document.

With respect to the following collection of information, FDA invites comments on these topics: (1) Whether the proposed collection of information is necessary for the proper performance of FDA's functions, including whether the information will have practical utility; (2) the accuracy of FDA's estimate of the burden of the proposed collection of information, including the validity of the methodology and assumptions used; (3) ways to enhance the quality, utility, and clarity of the information to be collected; and (4) ways to minimize the burden of the collection of information on respondents, including through the use of automated collection techniques, when appropriate, and other forms of information technology.

Planning for the Effects of High Absenteeism To Ensure Availability of Medically Necessary Drug Products

OMB Control Number 0910-0675—Extension

This information collection supports recommendations found in Agency guidance. Specifically, we have developed guidance intended to encourage manufacturers of drug and therapeutic biological products, and any raw materials and components used in those products, to develop a written Emergency Plan (Plan) for maintaining an adequate supply of medically necessary drug products (MNP) during an emergency that results in high employee absenteeism. The guidance document entitled, "Planning for the Effects of High Absenteeism To Ensure Availability of Medically Necessary Drug Products," discusses the elements that should be covered by such a Plan, and is available from our website at: <https://www.fda.gov/regulatory-information/search-fda-guidance-documents/planning-effects-high-absenteeism-ensure-availability-medically-necessary-drug-products>.

We estimate the burden of this collection of information as follows:

TABLE 1—ESTIMATED ANNUAL REPORTING BURDEN ¹

Activity	Number of respondents	Number of responses per respondent	Total annual responses	Average burden per response	Total hours
Activate/deactivate Plan as recommended in the guidance	2	1	2	16	32

¹ There are no capital costs or operating and maintenance costs associated with this collection of information.

Activity	Number of recordkeepers	Number of records per recordkeeper	Total annual records	Average burden per recordkeeper	Total hours
Develop initial Plan as recommended in the guidance	70	1	70	250	17,500

¹ There are no capital costs or operating and maintenance costs associated with this collection of information.

As explained in the guidance, we provide recommendations for developing and implementing a written Plan, including: (1) Identifying a person or position title (as well as two designated alternates) with the authority to activate and deactivate the Plan and make decisions during the emergency; (2) prioritizing the manufacturer's drug products based on medical necessity; (3) identifying actions that should be taken prior to an anticipated period of high absenteeism; (4) identifying criteria for activating the Plan; (5) performing quality risk assessments to determine which manufacturing activities may be reduced to enable the company to meet a demand for MNPs; (6) returning to normal operations and conducting a post-execution assessment of the execution outcomes; and (7) testing the Plan.

The guidance also encourages manufacturers to include and document procedures in the Plan for notifying the FDA Center for Drug Evaluation and Research (CDER) when the Plan is activated and when returning to normal operations. The guidance recommends that these notifications occur within 1 day of a Plan's activation and within 1 day of a Plan's deactivation. The guidance identifies the information that should be included in these notifications, such as which drug products will be manufactured under altered procedures, which products' manufacturing will be temporarily delayed, and any anticipated or potential drug shortages. We assume two notifications (for purposes of this analysis, we consider an activation and a deactivation notification to equal one notification) will be submitted to CDER annually, and assume each notification requires 16 hours to prepare and submit.

Finally, the guidance recommends developing a Plan for each individual manufacturing facility as well as a broader Plan that addresses multiple sites within the organization. For purposes of this information collection analysis, we consider the Plan for an individual manufacturing facility and the broader Plan to comprise one Plan for each manufacturer. Based on available data on the number of manufacturers that would be covered by the guidance, we previously estimated 70 manufacturers will develop a Plan as recommended by the guidance (i.e., one Plan per manufacturer, to include all manufacturing facilities, sites, and drug products) and that each Plan would take approximately 500 hours to develop. Upon development of the plan, however, we believe fewer hours are necessary to maintain and update it as needed. As FDA issued the guidance in 2011, we now assume that most respondents have developed the recommended plan, and therefore we limit our current burden estimate to updates and maintenance. Accordingly, we have reduced our estimate by half, reasoning that, although it takes fewer hours for updates and maintenance, new respondents may choose to adopt recommendations found in the guidance.

Principal Associate Commissioner for Policy.
