

New Jersey Avenue SE, Washington, DC 20590.

Complete submission packages shall consist of the following elements:

1. Eligibility Statement

A statement of eligibility by private entities indicating that they are incorporated in and maintain a primary place of business in the United States, or a statement of eligibility by individuals indicating that they citizens or permanent residents of the United States.

2. Summary (1 Page)

An overall summary of the project that includes: (a) The project title, (b) a one paragraph synopsis, and, (c) a statement of the potential impact the concept will have on combating human trafficking in the transportation industry.

3. Supporting Documents (No Page Limit)

The paper(s) and/or technologies, programs, video/audio files, and other related materials, describing the project and addressing the selection criteria. As applicable, this can include a description of success of a previous or similar project and/or documentation of impact. You may also submit supporting letters, which may be from subject matter experts or industry, which may address the technical merit of the concept, originality, impact, practicality, measurability and/or applicability. DOT may request additional information, including supporting documentation, more detailed contact information, releases of liability, and statements of authenticity to guarantee the originality of the work. Failure to respond in a timely manner may result in disqualification.

Initial Screening

The Office of International Transportation and Trade will initially review applications to determine that all required submission elements are included and to determine compliance with eligibility requirements.

Evaluation

After Initial Screening, the Office of International Transportation and Trade, with input from the relevant Operating Administrations, will judge entries based on the factors described below: Technical merit, originality, impact, practicality, measurability, and applicability. All factors are important and will be given consideration.

The Office of International Transportation and Trade will present the most highly qualified entries to Assistant Secretary for Aviation and International Affairs, who will make recommendations to the Secretary of Transportation.

The Secretary will make the final selection.

The Department reserves the right to not award the prize if the selecting officials believe that no submission demonstrates sufficient potential for sufficient transformative impact.

Technical Merit

- Has the submission presented a clear understanding of the issue of human trafficking in the transportation industry?
- Has the submission developed a logical and workable solution and approach to addressing the problem?
- What are the most unique merits of this concept?
- Were survivors of human trafficking consulted on the merits of the project?
- Has the submission clearly described the breadth of impact of the project?

Originality

- Is this concept new or a variation of an existing idea, and in what way(s)?
- How is this work unique?

Impact

- To what extent will this project make a significant impact and/or contribution to the fight against human trafficking in the transportation industry?
- Which aspects of the issue of human trafficking is the submission attempting to address?

Practicality

- Who directly benefits from this work?
- Can this program or activity be implemented in a way that requires a finite amount of resources? Specifically, does the submission have high or low fixed costs, low or no marginal costs, and a clear path to implementation and scale beyond an initial investment?
- What are the anticipated resources and costs to be incurred by executing this concept?

Measurability

- How has this individual/group measured the impact of the project?
- To what extent does the project result in measurable improvements?

Applicability

- Can this effort be scaled?
- Is this work specific to one region, various regions, or to the entire nation?

Award

One winning entry is expected to be announced and will receive a cash prize of up to $50,000. A plaque with the winner(s) name and date of award will be on display at the Department of Transportation, and a display copy of the plaque(s) will be sent to the winner's headquarters. At the discretion of the Secretary, up to two additional plaques may be awarded to recognize the second and third place entrants. At the option of the Secretary of Transportation, DOT will pay for invitational travel expenses to Washington, DC for up to two individuals or representatives of the winning organization should selectees be invited to present their project/s for DOT officials.

Authority: 15 U.S.C. 3719 (America COMPETES Act).
