

FCC's updated system of records notice (SORN), FCC/CGB-1, "Informal Complaints, Inquiries, and Requests for Dispute Assistance." As required by the Privacy Act, 5 U.S.C. 552a, the Commission also published a SORN, FCC/CGB-1 "Informal Complaints, Inquiries, and Requests for Dispute Assistance," in the Federal Register on August 15, 2014 (79 FR 48152) which became effective on September 24, 2014.

Privacy Act Impact Assessment: The FCC completed a Privacy Impact Assessment (PIA) on June 28, 2007. It may be reviewed at <http://www.fcc.gov/omd/privacyact/Privacy-Impact-Assessment.html>. The Commission is in the process of updating the PIA to incorporate various revisions to it as a result of revisions to the SORN.

Needs and Uses: The Commission will use the information submitted by a digital apparatus manufacturer or other party to determine whether it is achievable for digital apparatus to be fabricated so that control of appropriate built-in apparatus functions are accessible to and usable by individuals who are blind or visually impaired or whether it is achievable to comply with the information, documentation, and training requirements. The Commission will use the information submitted by an Multichannel Video Programming Distributor (MVPD) or navigation device manufacturer or other party to determine whether it is achievable for on-screen text menus and guides provided by navigation devices for the display or selection of multichannel video programming to be audibly accessible in real time upon request by individuals who are blind or visually impaired or whether it is achievable to comply with the information, documentation, and training requirements. Consumers will use the information provided by manufacturers of digital apparatus on the full functionalities of digital apparatus, such as instructions and product information, as well as information provided by manufacturers and MVPDs in accordance with the information, documentation, and training requirements, in order to have accessible information and support on how to use the device. Consumers will use the information provided by manufacturers and MVPDs notifying consumers of the availability of accessible digital apparatus and navigation devices to determine which devices accessible and whether they wish to request an accessible device. MVPDs and manufacturers of navigation devices will use the information provided by consumers who are blind or visually impaired consumers when requesting accessible navigation devices to fulfill such requests. MVPDs will use information provided by customers who are blind or visually impaired as reasonable proof of disability as a condition to providing equipment and/or services at a price that is lower than that offered to the general public. Consumers will use the contact information of covered entities to file written complaints regarding the accessibility requirements for digital apparatus and navigation devices. Finally, the Commission will use information received pursuant to the complaint procedures for violations of sections 79.107-79.109 to enforce the Commission's digital apparatus and navigation device accessibility requirements. The Commission will forward complaints, as appropriate, to the named manufacturer or provider for its response, as well as to any other entity that the Commission determines may be involved, and it may request additional information from relevant parties.

[Docket No. 20-03]

Earlean Edwards Dukart, Complainant v. Ocean Star International Inc., d/b/a International Van Lines, Respondent; Notice of Filing of Complaint and Assignment

Served: February 6, 2020.

Notice is given that a complaint has been filed with the Federal Maritime Commission (Commission) by Earlean Edwards Dukart, hereinafter "Complainant", against Ocean Star International Inc., d/b/a International Van Lines, hereinafter "Respondent". Complainant states that she is a U.S. Citizen that currently resides in Belize, Central America. Complainant states that Respondent has ". . . FMC organization/license no. 021051" and claims that Respondent ". . . was acting as a 'common carrier' as defined in 46 U.S.C. 40102" in relation to all its allegations. Complainant states that Respondent is a party to a ". . . Service Agreement for the international shipment of goods, Service Contract No. IN4005736."

Complainant sought transportation services from Respondent for a move of household goods from Colorado to Belize. Complainant alleges that Respondent ". . . willingly and intentionally, altered the terms of the Service Agreement." Complainant alleges that Respondent ". . . extorted Complainant into paying invalid invoices with inaccurate fees and charges that were disputed by the Complainant." Complainant also alleges that Respondent ". . . unlawfully submitted fraudulent documents."

Complainant alleges her household goods have not been released to her or delivered.

Complainant alleges that Respondent violated “46 U.S.C. 41102(a)(b)(c)”, “41103(a)(1)”, “41104(1)(2)(3)(4)(8)(10)”, and “41105(1)(2)(4)”. Complainant seeks reparations in the amount of $256,241 and other relief. The full text of the complaint can be found in the Commission’s Electronic Reading Room at <https://www2.fmc.gov/readingroom/proceeding/20-03/>.

This proceeding has been assigned to Office of Administrative Law Judges. The initial decision of the presiding office in this proceeding shall be issued by February 8, 2021, and the final decision of the Commission shall be issued by August 23, 2021.
