Total Estimated Number of Annual Burden Hours: 49,477.

Abstract: The High School and Beyond 2020 study (HS&B:20) will be the sixth in a series of longitudinal studies at the high school level conducted by the National Center for Education Statistics (NCES), within the Institute of Education Sciences (IES) of the U.S. Department of Education. HS&B:20 will follow a nationally-representative sample of ninth grade students from the start of high school in the fall of 2020 to the spring of 2024 when most will be in twelfth grade. The study sample will be refreshed in 2024 to create a nationally representative sample of twelfth-graders. A high school transcript collection and additional follow-up data collections beyond high school are also planned. The NCES secondary longitudinal studies examine issues such as students' readiness for high school; the risk factors associated with dropping out of high school; high school completion; the transition into postsecondary education and access/choice of institution; the shift from school to work; and the pipeline into science, technology, engineering, and mathematics (STEM). They inform education policy by tracking long-term trends and elucidating relationships among student, family, and school characteristics and experiences. HS&B:20 will follow the Middle Grades Longitudinal Study of 2017/18 (MGLS:2017) which followed the Early Childhood Longitudinal Study, Kindergarten Class of 2010–11 (ECLS–K:2011), thereby allowing for the study of all transitions from elementary school through high school and into higher education and/or the workforce. HS&B:20 will include surveys of students, parents, students' math teachers, counselors, and administrators, plus a student assessment in mathematics and reading and a brief hearing and vision test. In preparation for the HS&B:20 base-year full scale study, scheduled to take place in the fall of 2020, the request to conduct the HS&B:20 base year field test data collection and the base year full scale sampling and state, school district, school, and parent recruitment activities was approved in December 2018, with the latest update approved in December 2019 (OMB# 1850–0944 v.1–5). This request is to conduct the base-year full scale study data collection, scheduled to begin in August 2020. A new draft of Appendix B that will contain a Spanish translation of the Student Questionnaire will be added by April 20, 2020.

Dated: February 20, 2020.

Appendix A—Letter to Yale University

February 11, 2020

Dr. Peter Salovey, President, Yale University, 3 Prospect Street, New Haven, CT 06511

Re: Notice of 20 U.S.C. 1011f Investigation and Record Request/Yale University

Dear President Salovey:

Section 117 of the Higher Education Act of 1965, 20 U.S.C. 1011f, requires Yale University to report statutorily defined gifts, contracts, and/or restricted and conditional gifts or contracts from or with a statutorily defined foreign source, to the U.S. Department of Education. These reports are posted at <https://studentaid.ed.gov/sa/about/data-center/school/foreign-gifts>.

It appears Yale University failed to report a single foreign source gift or contract in 2014, 2015, 2016, and 2017. However, Yale University says it “has a considerable presence abroad, represented by sites in dozens of cities and countries . . . [some] operated by Yale or a closely affiliated entity”, claims “considerable success” in setting up “jointly run laboratories with Chinese universities . . . funded by Chinese granting agencies . . .”, and has solicited and received directed foreign contributions advancing specific religious and ideological priorities. See https://world.yale.edu/sites/default/files/files/International_Affairs_Report_Final.pdf; see also <https://web.archive.org/web/20180321012214/http://www.thenation.com/article/why-are-us-colleges-collaborating-with-saudi-arabia/>.

Section 117(f), 20 U.S.C. 1011f(f), provides that whenever it appears an institution has failed to comply with the law, the Secretary of Education may request the Attorney General commence an enforcement action to compel compliance and to recover the full costs to the United States of obtaining compliance, including all associated costs of investigation and enforcement. The Department is now concerned Yale University's reporting may not fully capture all gifts, contracts, and/or restricted and conditional gifts or contracts from or with all foreign sources. To meet our statutory duty to verify compliance prior to any potential referral for enforcement action, the Department has opened an administrative investigation of Yale University and requests that you produce the following within sixty days:

1. A list of all foreign sites “operated by Yale or a closely affiliated entity” as described at <https://world.yale.edu/sites/>

As used in this Notice of Investigation and Information Request:

"Agent" has its plain and ordinary meaning and includes, solely by way of example and not limitation, the U.S.-domiciled donor advised funds and foundations of a foreign source.

"Contract" has the meaning given at 20 U.S.C. 1011f(h)(1).

"Foreign source" has the meaning given at 20 U.S.C. 1011f(h)(2).

"Gift" has the meaning given at 20 U.S.C. 1011f(h)(3).

"Institution" has the meaning given at 20 U.S.C. 1011f(h)(4) and includes all campuses. Section 117 requires that when an institution receives the benefit of a gift from or a contract with a foreign source in the applicable amount, even if by an agent (e.g., employee) and through an intermediary (e.g., non-profit organization), it must disclose the gift or contract to the Department. Where a legal entity (e.g., centers, boards, foundations, research groups, partnerships, or non-profit organizations, whether or not organized under the laws of the United States and including, by way of example and not limitation, the Yale-NUS College, the Yale-China Association, the China-Yale Advanced University Leadership Program, the Yale Asia Development Council, the Yale Center Beijing, and the Paul Mellon Centre in London, England) operates substantially for the benefit or under the auspices of an institution, there is a rebuttable presumption that when that legal entity receives money or enters into a contract with a foreign source, it is for the benefit of the institution, and, thus, must be disclosed.

"Record" means all recorded information, regardless of form or characteristics, made or received by you, and including metadata, such as email and other electronic communication, word processing documents, PDF documents, animations (including PowerPoint™ and other similar programs) spreadsheets, databases, calendars, telephone logs, contact manager information, internet usage files, network access information, writings, drawings, graphs, charts, photographs, sound recordings, images, financial statements, checks, wire transfers, accounts, ledgers, facsimiles, texts, animations, voicemail files, data generated by calendaring, task management and personal information management (PIM) software (such as Microsoft Outlook), data created with the use of personal data assistants (PDAs), data created with the use of document management software, data created with the use of paper and electronic mail logging and routing software, and other data or data compilations, stored in any medium from which information can be obtained either directly or, if necessary, after translation by the responding party into a reasonably usable form. The term "recorded information" also includes all traditional forms of records, regardless of physical form or characteristics.

"Restricted or conditional gift or contract" has the meaning given at 20 U.S.C. 1011f(h)(5).

Your record and data preservation obligations are more particularly described at Exhibit A. If you claim attorney-client or attorney-work product privilege for a given record, then you must prepare and submit a privilege log expressly identifying each such record and describing it so the Department may assess your claim's validity. Please note no other privileges apply here. Finally, this investigation will be directed by the Department's Office of the General Counsel with support from Federal Student Aid. To arrange transmission of the requested information, or should you have any other questions, please contact:
