SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Background: This is the third public hearing the Commission will hold during its 2020 report cycle. This hearing will assess the intentions behind China's efforts to revise international governance institutions, norms and values, and technical standards-setting bodies. It will examine China's vision for a revised global order, its actions in existing and newly-established international organizations to achieve its goals, and its attempts to promote new norms for the global digital economy. In so doing, the hearing will attempt to identify whether a distinguishable China model exists; if so, to what extent China is seeking to export it to other countries, and for what purpose; and the consequences of China's growing influence in global governance and standards-setting bodies for U.S. interests. The hearing will be co-chaired by Senator Carte Goodwin and Senator Jim Talent. Any interested party may file a written statement by March 13, 2020 by mailing to the contact above. A portion of each panel will include a question and answer period between the Commissioners and the witnesses.
