The Privacy Act embodies fair information principles in a statutory framework governing the means by which the United States Government collects, maintains, uses, and disseminates individuals' records. The Privacy Act applies to information that is maintained in what is known as a System of Records. A System of Records is defined by the Privacy Act as a group of any records under the control of an agency from which information is retrieved by the name of the individual or by some identifying number, symbol, or other identifying particular assigned to the individual. In the Privacy Act, an individual is defined to encompass United States citizens and legal permanent residents. As a matter of policy, NCPC extends administrative Privacy Act protection to all individuals for Systems of Records that contain information on U.S. citizens, lawful permanent residents, and visitors. Individuals may access their own records contained in a System of Records in the possession or under the control of NCPC in the manner described by NCPC's Privacy Act Regulations found at 1 CFR part 603.

The Privacy Act requires each agency to publish in the Federal Register a description of the type and character of each System of Records that the agency maintains and the routine uses for the records contained in each system. This requirement renders agency recordkeeping practices transparent, notifies individuals of the use to which their respective records are put, and assists individuals find records about themselves maintained by the agency. This notice complies with the requirements of the Privacy Act regarding Systems of Records and sets forth below the requisite information concerning NCPC's Asset Management System of Records.

In accordance with guidance provided by the Office of Management and Budget (OMB), NCPC provided a report of this new Systems of Records to OMB, to the House Committee on Oversight and Government Reform, and the Senate Committee on Governmental Affairs.

SYSTEM NAME AND NUMBER:

NCPC-4, Asset Management System.

SECURITY CLASSIFICATION:

Unclassified.

SYSTEM LOCATION:

The records containing asset management information are located at NCPC, 401 9th Street NW, Suite 500 North, Washington, DC 20004.

SYSTEM MANAGERS:

For records indicated in the System Location above, information about the system manager can be obtained from NCPC's Director, Office of Administration, (202) 482-7200.

AUTHORITY FOR THE SYSTEM:

The National Capital Planning Act, 40 U.S.C. 8701 et seq. (2016); 44 U.S.C. Chapter 31; 40 U.S.C. 121; 41 CFR Chapter 101.

PURPOSE OF THE SYSTEM:

The purpose of the system is to track all NCPC-owned or controlled property that has been issued to current and former NCPC employees, contractors, and interns.

CATEGORIES OF INDIVIDUALS COVERED BY THE SYSTEM:

Categories of individuals covered by this system include all current and former NCPC employees, contractors, and interns assigned government-owned assets (e.g., laptop computers, communication equipment, and other assets).

CATEGORIES OF RECORDS IN THE SYSTEM:

Categories of records maintained in this system include: Individual's name; Email address; Office name; Office location; Office telephone number; Property management records, which include information on government-owned property (e.g., laptop computers, communication equipment, and other assets) in the personal custody of the individuals covered by this system and used in the performance of their official duties.
