DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE

Notice of Lodging of Proposed Consent Decree Under the Comprehensive Environmental Response, Compensation, and Liability Act (CERCLA)

On September 15, 2020, the Department of Justice lodged a proposed Consent Decree with the United States District Court for the Western District of Tennessee in the lawsuit entitled United States and State of Tennessee v. Security Signals, Inc., Civil Action No. 2:20–cv–02689–JMP.

The Consent Decree resolves the United States and State of Tennessee’s claims set forth in the Complaint against Security Signals, Inc. (“Defendant”) for injunctive relief and cost recovery under Sections 106 and 107(a) of the Comprehensive Environmental Response, Compensation, and Liability Act (“CERCLA”) and injunctive relief under Tenn. Code Ann §§ 68–212–206 and 68–212–227 relating to the release or threatened release of hazardous substances into the environment at Operable Unit Two (“OU2”) of the National Fireworks Superfund Alternative Site (the “Site”), located in Cordova, Shelby County, Tennessee. Under the terms of the proposed Consent Decree, Defendant will reimburse $677,715 of the costs incurred by the United State Environmental Protection Agency (“EPA”) and Defendant will reimburse $3,827.26 of the costs incurred by the State of Tennessee (the “State”) in connection with response actions at OU2 of the Site. Defendant also will reimburse EPA and the State for their future responses at OU2 and will perform the work set forth in the interim Record of Decision issued by EPA on September 30, 2014. The United States Department of Defense (“DOD”) is a settling federal agency. Under the terms of the Consent Decree, DOD will pay Defendant $1,304,985 towards a percentage of Defendant’s past and future costs at OU2 and in contribution towards the payments that the Defendant is making for EPA’s and the State’s response costs.

BILLING CODE 4410–15–P

Notice Lodging of Proposed Consent Decree Under the Comprehensive Environmental Response, Compensation, and Liability Act

On September 15, 2020 the Department of Justice lodged a proposed Consent Decree with the United States District Court for the Southern District of Iowa in the lawsuit entitled United States v. Dico, Inc. and Titan Tire Corporation, Civil Action No. 4:10–cv–00503–RP–RAW.

The United States filed this lawsuit under the Comprehensive Environmental Response, Compensation, and Liability Act (“CERCLA”). The United States’ complaint sought civil penalties and punitive damages against Dico, Inc. for violations of an EPA order at the Des Moines TCE Superfund Site and the recovery of the United States’ past and future response costs at the Southern Iowa Mechanical (“SIM”) Site against Dico, Inc. and Titan Tire Corporation jointly and severally. The United States obtained judgments against Dico, Inc. for $1.62 million in civil penalties and $5.45 million in punitive damages, and against Dico, Inc. and Titan Tire Corporation jointly and severally for past response costs of $5.45 million and all future response costs at the SIM Site. The Consent Decree requires the Defendants and their ultimate parent company, Titan Tire International, Inc., jointly and severally, to pay $11.5 million to satisfy these judgments and a separate judgment obtained by the United States on March 29, 2000 in Case No. 4–95–cv–10289 (S.D. Iowa) against Dico, Inc. for $4.12 million in past response costs at the Des Moines TCE Site. The Consent Decree also requires Dico, Inc. to donate or convey the Dico Property to the City of Des Moines (the “City”) for no more than $10.00. Under the Consent Decree, the City will undertake certain response actions at the Dico Property, including ongoing
