

representatives of Tribal organizations, who request to provide oral testimony in advance of the meeting or via the chat function; fifth, other members of the public who request to provide oral testimony in advance of the meeting or via the chat function; and sixth, all other members of the public who identify themselves orally.

Adjournment. We will adjourn Tribal consultation meetings early if all attendees who requested to provide oral testimony in advance of and during the consultation have delivered their comments. We may provide additional or alternate opportunities to comment, including in virtual listening sessions hosted by Tribal transportation associations with Departmental officials. Additional information regarding additional opportunities to provide oral comment will be made available at <https://www.transportation.gov/self-governance>. We will summarize in a letter to Tribal governments the comments received and indicate how Tribal input was considered in the final action. The letter will constitute formal follow-up notification and will be entered as the date Tribal consultation ended.

IV. Request for Comments

We request public comment from Indian Tribes on the Department's implementation of E.O. 13175 and its Tribal consultation policies and practice. Your comments may relate to, but should not be limited to, the questions identified above. All comments will be accepted. The virtual Tribal consultation meetings and listening sessions are not the only opportunity you have to comment on this matter. In addition to, or in place of, attending a virtual meeting, we encourage you to submit comments in accordance with the instructions in ADDRESSES, above. Public comment submissions should include the Docket number OST-2021-0023.

DOT solicits comments from the public to better inform its deliberations. The DOT posts these comments, without edit, including any personal information the commenter provides, to www.regulations.gov, as described in the system of records notice (DOT/ALL-14 FDMS), which can be viewed at www.dot.gov/privacy.

Issued in Washington, DC, on or about March 4, 2021.

Peter Paul Montgomery Buttigieg,
Secretary of Transportation.

BILLING CODE 4810-AL-C

DEPARTMENT OF THE TREASURY

Privacy Act of 1974; System of Records

AGENCY: Departmental Offices, Department of the Treasury.

ACTION: Notice of a modified system of records.

SUMMARY: In accordance with the Privacy Act of 1974, the Department of the Treasury (“Treasury” or the “Department”), Departmental Offices proposes to modify a current Treasury system of records titled, “Department of the Treasury, Departmental Offices .214—D.C. Pensions Retirement Records” System of Records. This system of records is a collection of information used by the Office of D.C. Pensions to administer certain District of Columbia (“District”) retirement plans, and the modification of the system of records notice is being published in order to clarify and update the description of the system of records.

DATES: Submit comments on or before April 8, 2021. The modification of the system of records notice will be applicable on April 8, 2021.

ADDRESSES: Written comments on this notice may be submitted electronically through the Federal government eRulemaking portal at <http://www.regulations.gov>. Electronic submission of comments allows the commenter maximum time to prepare and submit a comment, ensures timely receipt, and enables the Treasury to make the comments available to the public. Please note that comments submitted through <https://www.regulations.gov> will be public and can be viewed by members of the public. Due to COVID-19-related restrictions, Treasury has temporarily suspended its ability to receive public comments by mail.

In general, Treasury will post all comments to <https://www.regulations.gov> without change, including any business or personal information provided, such as names, addresses, email addresses, or telephone numbers. All comments received, including attachments and other supporting material, will be part of the public record and subject to public disclosure. You should only submit information that you wish to make publicly available.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: For general questions, please contact: Shalamar Barnes, 202-622-6173, the Office of D.C. Pensions, Departmental Offices, 1500 Pennsylvania Avenue NW, Washington, DC 20220. For privacy issues, please contact: The Department of the Treasury, Office of Privacy and Civil Liberties via email at privacy@treasury.gov.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: In accordance with the Privacy Act of 1974, 5 U.S.C. 552a, the Department of the Treasury (“Treasury”), Departmental Offices proposes to modify a current Treasury system of records titled, “Department of the Treasury, Departmental Offices .214—DC Pensions Retirement Records System of Records.”

The proposed modification to the system of records makes the following substantive changes:

1. DO .214—DC Pensions Retirement Records, System Location, is being updated to remove the District of Columbia government offices as a location of records in the system of records. Paper and electronic records (including records stored in the District’s FileNet system) stored by the District of Columbia government are not federal records.

2. DO .214—DC Pensions Retirement Records, System Purpose, is being modified to add the following purposes: Determining liability for benefit payments to former judges; determining whether someone committed fraud; and determining the accuracy of financial reports. Additionally, the purpose of determining the impact of legislation is being modified to clarify that it applies to all benefit payments not just the federal funds.

3. DO .214—DC Pensions Retirement Records, Categories of Individuals Covered by System, is being modified to add non-annuitant debtors as a category of covered individuals. Non-annuitant debtors covered by the system include people who received benefit payments, by either fraud or mistake, despite not being entitled to benefits.

4. DO .214—DC Pensions Retirement Records, Categories of Records in the System, is being modified to add records provided by domestic partners, clarify the description of tax withholding forms, remove records related to debt other than debt arising from overpayments, change the description of correspondence to include correspondence from individuals covered by the system, use the term “disability” in lieu of “handicap,” use the term “death benefit applications” in lieu of “death claim,” delete the category for records submitted by a beneficiary in support of claims to a benefit payment because it was duplicative, and add financial
