

petitions for review must be filed in the Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia Circuit: (i) When the agency action consists of “nationally applicable regulations promulgated, or final action taken, by the Administrator,” or (ii) when such action is locally or regionally applicable, if “such action is based on a determination of nationwide scope or effect and if in taking such action the Administrator finds and publishes that such action is based on such a determination.” For locally or regionally applicable actions, the CAA reserves to EPA complete discretion whether to invoke the exception in (ii).

As explained in the Order, this Order is locally applicable because it denies the single claim raised by the Petition and applies, on its face, to a single source in a single state. Sierra Club v. EPA, 926 F.3d 844, 849 (D.C. Cir. 2019). However, the Administrator exercised the complete discretion afforded to him under the CAA to make a finding in the Order that this action is based on a determination of nationwide scope or effect, and to publish this finding by publishing this notice regarding the Order in the Federal Register.

Thus, pursuant to sections 307(b) and 505(b)(2) of the CAA, any petitions for judicial review of this Order must be filed in the United States Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia Circuit within 60 days from the date this notice is published in the Federal Register.

Dated: March 4, 2021.
