

(2) premiums earned on such coverage; (3) geographical location of exposures; (4) pricing of such coverage; (5) the take-up rate for such coverage; (6) the amount of private reinsurance for acts of terrorism purchased; and (7) such other matters as the Secretary considers appropriate.

In addition, Section 108(h) of TRIA requires the Secretary to conduct, by June 30, 2017 and every other year thereafter, a study of small insurers (to be defined by the Secretary, as has been done under 31 CFR 50.4(z)) participating in the Program to identify any competitive challenges that small insurers face in the terrorism risk insurance marketplace. Section 108(h) also identifies specific matters that Treasury is required to analyze in the small insurers study. In addition to the data that Treasury has previously collected and will be collecting in the future, Treasury seeks comments for use in the study that Treasury must conduct concerning the participation of small insurers in the Program.

II. Solicitation for Comments on Small Insurer Participation in the Program

As discussed above, Treasury will be collecting certain data from small insurers as part of its 2021 TRIP Data Call,² which Treasury will use (along with data collected by Treasury during prior TRIP Data Calls) in connection with the study. Treasury welcomes comments concerning small insurer participation in the Program generally, and invites responses to the following particular issues specified in Section 108(h) of TRIA:

- (1) Changes to the market share, premium volume, and policyholder surplus of small insurers relative to large insurers.
- (2) How the property and casualty insurance market for terrorism risk differs between small and large insurers, and whether such a difference exists within other perils.
- (3) The impact of the Program's mandatory availability requirement under Section 103(c) of TRIA on small insurers.
- (4) The effect of increasing the trigger amount for the Program under Section 103(e)(1)(B) of TRIA for small insurers.
- (5) The availability and cost of private reinsurance for small insurers.
- (6) The impact that state workers' compensation laws have on small insurers and workers' compensation carriers in the terrorism risk insurance marketplace.

In addition, Treasury welcomes qualitative and quantitative comments on the following specific topics that may be relevant to the competitiveness of small insurers in the terrorism risk insurance marketplace.

- (1) Any potential constraints on the ability of small insurers to provide coverage for nuclear, chemical, biological, and radiological (NBCR) risks.
- (2) Any risk management strategies and challenges faced by small insurers in maintaining the ability to pay losses associated with insured claims that are not subject to claims for the federal share of compensation (e.g., losses below the Program Trigger, within the insurer deductible, and within the insurer co-pay share).
- (3) The impact, if any, on small insurer participation in the terrorism risk insurance marketplace of the 2019 reauthorization of the Program until December 31, 2027, under the sharing mechanisms in place as of Calendar Year 2020.³
- (4) The role of small insurers in covering cyber-related acts of terrorism under the Program.
- (5) The role of small insurers in covering terrorism risk under the Program for Places of Worship.⁴
- (6) Any potential issues posed for small insurers in the terrorism risk insurance marketplace by market impacts resulting from the COVID-19 pandemic.

Treasury issued its first two studies of small insurers under TRIA in June 2017⁵ and June 2019.⁶ In those studies, Treasury addressed the statutory issues identified above, with reference to data collected by Treasury in the TRIP Data Calls, as well as other available sources. Treasury requests further comment on these issues from interested parties, particularly with respect to any issue that an interested party believes may not be fully evident solely by reference to

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: Section 3002 of Public Law 116–315, Johnny

Isakson and David P. Roe, M.D. Veterans Health Care and Benefits Improvement Act of 2020 (the “Act”), amended 38 U.S.C. 1730A by prohibiting VA from collecting copayments from covered Veterans for the receipt of hospital care or medical services under laws administered by VA. Pursuant to the Act, covered Veteran means a Veteran who is catastrophically disabled, as defined by VA, or an Indian or urban Indian (as defined in section 4 of the Indian Health Care Improvement Act (25 U.S.C. 1603)). Catastrophically-disabled Veterans have been exempt from certain copayments pursuant to section 1730A, since 2010, and this exemption is further implemented in VA’s copayment regulations at §§ 17.108, 17.110 and 17.111 of title 38, Code of Federal Regulations. Veterans who are Indians or urban Indians will not be eligible for copayment exemption until January 5, 2022, as section 3002 of the Act does not take effect until 1 year from the date of enactment of the Act. In order to implement section 3002 of the Act, VA must be able to identify Indian and urban Indian Veterans in VA’s system of enrollment during the registration process to assist with downstream applications for copayment billing determinations. This will be a new business process to collect official information to recognize Veterans who are Indians or urban Indians. This tribal consultation session is seeking input from tribal governments, Indians and urban Indians regarding documentation that can be used by VA’s health care system to identify those Veterans who are Indians or urban Indians (as defined in 25 U.S.C. 1603). Input received during the tribal consultation session will be evaluated and as appropriate, incorporated into any rulemaking and/or policy for copayment exemptions under 38 U.S.C. 1730A.

Tribal Consultation Topics

VA seeks responses to the following questions:

1. In determining whether a Veteran is a member of an Indian tribe, could any or all of the following documentation from the Veteran provide sufficient documentation?

- Tribal Enrollment Card;
- Certificate of Degree of Indian; or
- Certificate of Indian Blood from an American Indian/Alaska Native Tribe.

2. What other information and/or documentation are available for determining if a Veteran is a member of an Indian tribe? To the extent possible, please indicate the source of the information and/or how the information and/or documentation would assist VA in determining if a Veteran is a member of an Indian tribe.

3. How should VA determine whether a Veteran is a member of an Indian tribe? In making this determination, should VA:

- Require documentation be provided by the Veteran;
- Require that the Veteran self-certify that they meet the definition; or
- Should this determination be made in some other manner?

Signing Authority:

Denis McDonough, Secretary of Veterans Affairs, approved this document on March 29, 2021, and authorized the undersigned to sign and submit the document to the Office of the Federal Register for publication electronically as an official document of the Department of Veterans Affairs.

Jeffrey M. Martin,

Assistant Director, Office of Regulation Policy & Management, Office of the Secretary, Department of Veterans Affairs.
