

should include contact information for the requester. Requests for correction or amendment must identify the record to be changed and the corrective action sought.

NOTIFICATION PROCEDURES:

Inquiries should be mailed to the System Manager and comply with the requirements specified in 29 CFR 71.

EXEMPTIONS PROMULGATED FOR THE SYSTEM:

To facilitate legal services and other OLS program support, the new system includes records that may be exempt from certain Privacy Act requirements. Pursuant to 5 U.S.C. 552a(j)(2), the Department may exempt from a limited number of Privacy Act requirements a system of records that is maintained by a component which performs as its primary function any activity pertaining to the enforcement of criminal laws and which consists of information compiled in furtherance of its functions. Additionally, pursuant to 5 U.S.C. 552a(k)(1) and (k)(2), through rulemaking, the Department may exempt from a limited number of Privacy Act requirements a system of records which are disclosed to departmental officers and employees with a need for the record, or which contains investigatory materials compiled for law enforcement purposes other than material within the scope of 5 U.S.C. 552(j)(2). The OIG will apply to individual records within the system any Privacy Act exemptions which apply to the system(s) from which the relevant record(s) originated. In accordance with 5 U.S.C. 522(r), the Department provided a report to OMB and Congress on this new system.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: The Voluntary Protection Program (VPP) recognizes employers and workers in the private industry and federal agencies who have implemented effective safety and health management systems and maintain injury and illness rates below national Bureau of Labor Statistics averages for their respective industries. In VPP, management, labor, and OSHA work cooperatively and proactively to prevent fatalities, injuries, and illnesses through a system focused on: Hazard prevention and control; worksite analysis; training; and management commitment and worker involvement. OSHA Challenge provides interested employers and workers the opportunity to gain assistance in improving their safety and health management systems. For additional substantive information about this ICR, see the related notice published in the Federal Register on December 23, 2020 (85 FR 84007).

This information collection is subject to the PRA. A Federal agency generally cannot conduct or sponsor a collection of information, and the public is generally not required to respond to an information collection, unless the OMB approves it and displays a currently valid OMB Control Number. In addition, notwithstanding any other provisions of law, no person shall generally be subject to penalty for failing to comply with a collection of information that does not display a valid OMB Control Number. See 5 CFR 1320.5(a) and 1320.6.

DOL seeks PRA authorization for this information collection for three (3) years. OMB authorization for an ICR cannot be for more than three (3) years without renewal. The DOL notes that information collection requirements submitted to the OMB for existing ICRs receive a month-to-month extension while they undergo review.
