General Services Administration Acquisition Regulation; Personal Identity Verification Requirements Clarification

AGENCY: Office of Acquisition Policy, General Services Administration (GSA).
ACTION: Direct final rule.

SUMMARY: The General Services Administration (GSA) is amending the General Services Administration Acquisition Regulation (GSAR) to clarify the requirements for Personal Identity Verification (PIV). This direct final rule revises a GSAR clause to provide a more specific reference to the location of the GSA credentialing handbook. GSA is also moving language addressing internal operating procedures around option exercise from the GSAR to the non-regulatory General Services Administration Acquisition Manual (GSAM).

DATES: This direct final rule is effective on July 26, 2021 without further notice unless adverse comments are received. Interested parties should submit written comments to the Regulatory Secretariat as noted below on or before June 28, 2021 to be considered in the formation of the final rule. If GSA receives adverse comments, we will publish a timely withdrawal in the Federal Register informing the public that the rule will not take effect.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

I. Background

Following internal procurement management reviews, GSA identified the need to improve certain credentialing administration processes for contractors. GSA is amending the GSAR to clarify the personal identity verification requirements in GSAR Clause 552.204–9. The clause currently references a very broad credentialing website, which does not clearly identify the requirements for contractors to follow.

II. Authority for This Rulemaking

Title 40 of the United States Code (U.S.C.) Section 121 authorizes GSA to issue regulations, including the GSAR, to control the relationship between GSA and contractors.

III. Discussion of the Rule

GSA is amending the GSAR to specifically reference the Office of Mission Assurance CIO P 2181.1 GSA HSPD–12 Personal Identity Verification and Credentialing Handbook rather than just the general website for credentialing. The change to reference the Handbook will allow for contractor personnel to easily find the information needed related to PIV cards and will eliminate issues that could arise in the event that the website link becomes broken. GSA is also moving text dealing with the exercise of options from the GSAR to the non-regulatory GSAM. This move is being made because the language only addresses responsibilities of Contracting Officers in preparing documentation. As such, it is not regulatory material.

IV. Executive Order 12866 and 13563

Executive Orders (E.O.s) 12866 and 13563 direct agencies to assess all costs and benefits of available regulatory alternatives and, if regulation is necessary, to select regulatory approaches that maximize net benefits (including potential economic, environmental, public health and safety effects, distributive impacts, and equity). E.O. 13563 emphasizes the importance of quantifying both costs and benefits, of reducing costs, of harmonizing rules, and of promoting flexibility. This rule has been reviewed and determined by OMB not to be a significant regulatory action and, therefore, was not subject to review under section 6(b) of E.O. 12866, Regulatory Planning and Review, dated September 30, 1993.

V. Congressional Review Act

The Congressional Review Act, 5 U.S.C. 801 et seq., as amended by the Small Business Regulatory Enforcement Fairness Act of 1996, generally provides that before a “major rule” may take effect, the agency promulgating the rule must submit a rule report, which includes a copy of the rule, to each House of the Congress and to the Comptroller General of the United States. A major rule cannot take effect until 60 days after it is published in the Federal Register. This rule has been reviewed and determined by OMB not to be a “major rule” under 5 U.S.C. 804(2).

VI. Regulatory Flexibility Act

GSA does not expect this direct final rule to have a significant economic impact on a substantial number of small entities within the meaning of the Regulatory Flexibility Act, 5 U.S.C. 601, et seq.

VII. Paperwork Reduction Act

The direct final rule does not contain any information collection requirements that require the approval of the Office of Management and Budget under the Paperwork Reduction Act (44 U.S.C. chapter 35).
