The patent rights in these inventions have been assigned to the Government of the United States of America, the University of Maryland, Sarepta Therapeutics, Inc, and the Progeria Research Foundation (PRF), co-owners of said rights, for commercial development and marketing. The rights to be granted by NHGRI are controlled by NHGRI by virtue of co-ownership and a license received to the listed intellectual property. The prospective patent license will be for the purpose of consolidating the patent rights to PRF. Consolidation of these co-owned rights is intended to expedite development of the invention, consistent with the goals of the Bayh-Dole Act codified as 35 U.S.C. 200-212. The prospective patent license will be worldwide, exclusive, may be limited to those fields of use commensurate in scope with the patent rights, and will be sublicensable.

The subject technology pertains to modified oligonucleotides (called phosphorodiamidate morpholino oligonucleotides or PMOs) targeted to pre-mRNA of human LMNA Lamin A gene. These PMOs can be used to correct aberrant splicing of LMNA gene known to be involved in Hutchinson-Gilford Progeria Syndrome (HGPS), and could be used in treating this ultra-rare disease and related laminopathies.

This notice is made in accordance with 35 U.S.C. 209 and 37 CFR part 404. The prospective Exclusive Patent License will be royalty bearing and may be granted unless, within fifteen (15) days from the date of this published notice, the NHGRI Technology Transfer Office receives written evidence and argument that establishes that the grant of the license would not be consistent with the requirements of 35 U.S.C. 209 and 37 CFR part 404.

Complete applications for a license that are timely filed in response to this notice will be treated as objections to this to the grant of the contemplated exclusive patent license.

In response to this Notice, the public may file comments or objections. Comments and objections, other than those in the form of a license application, will not be treated confidentially, and may be made publicly available.

License applications submitted in response to this Notice will be presumed to contain business confidential information and any release of information from these license applications will be made only as required and upon a request under the Freedom of Information Act, 5 U.S.C. 552.
