The Committee will continue to review various issues that may include, but not be limited to, examination policies and procedures, credit and lending practices, deposit insurance assessments, insurance coverage, and regulatory compliance matters to promote the continued growth and ability of community banks to extend financial services in their respective local markets. The structure and responsibilities of the Committee are unchanged from when it was originally established in July 2009. The Committee will continue to operate in accordance with the provisions of the Federal Advisory Committee Act.

AGENCY: Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (FDIC).
ACTION: Notice of renewal.
SUMMARY: Pursuant to the provisions of the Federal Advisory Committee Act (FACA), and after consultation with the General Services Administration, the Chairman of the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation has determined that renewal of the FDIC Advisory Committee on Community Banking (Committee) is in the public interest in connection with the performance of duties imposed upon the FDIC by law. The Committee has been a successful undertaking by the FDIC and has provided valuable feedback to the agency on a broad range of policy issues that have a particular impact on community banks throughout the United States and the local communities that are served by community banks.

OW–2016–0404 as part of this request for comments.

Form Numbers: None.

Respondents/affected entities:
Approximately 15,000 POTWs that meet the definition under 40 CFR 403.3(q), 50 POTWs for site visits, and 100 state and/or small municipal association contacts.

Respondent’s obligation to respond:
Voluntary.

Estimated number of respondents:
12,000 (total).

Frequency of response: One-time data collection.

Total estimated burden: 8,747 hours (per year). Burden is defined at 5 CFR 1320.03(b).

Total estimated cost: $398,120 (per year), which includes $8,800 annualized capital or operation & maintenance costs.

Changes in Estimates:
There is a decrease of approximately 41,000 hours in the total estimated respondent burden compared with the ICR currently approved by OMB. This decrease is due to a screener questionnaire responses already received, reduced number of total respondents, and replacement of EPA’s estimated respondent burdens with the actual time respondents took to complete the screener questionnaire.

Courtney Kerwin,
Director, Regulatory Support Division.
