Proposal Under OMB Delegated Authority To Extend for Three Years, Without Revision, the Following Information Collection

Report title: Application Form for Membership on the Community Advisory Committee Council.

Agency form number: FR 1401.

OMB control number: 7100-0371.

Frequency: Annually.

Respondents: Any person seeking to be considered for membership on the Community Advisory Committee (CAC) Council.

Estimated number of respondents: 300.

Estimated average hours per response: 1.

Estimated annual burden hours: 300.

General description of report: The CAC Application (Application) is used to obtain information about the experience and qualification of persons seeking to be considered for membership on the CAC of the Board. The Application collects an applicant's contact information; details regarding current employment and areas of expertise; a resume, which typically includes information about employment history, education, and training; and a cover letter explaining why the applicant is interested in serving on the CAC and what he or she believes are their primary qualifications. Applicants can voluntarily elect to provide additional information to support their application.

Legal authorization and confidentiality: The Application is authorized pursuant to sections 2A and 10 of the Federal Reserve Act (FRA).¹ Section 2A of the FRA requires the Board and Federal Open Market Committee to maintain long run growth of the monetary and credit aggregates commensurate with the economy's long run potential to increase production, so as to promote effectively the goals of maximum employment, stable prices, and moderate long-term interest rates.² Section 10 of the FRA authorizes the Board to "determine and prescribe the manner in which its obligations shall be incurred and its disbursements and expenses allowed and paid."³

Providing information collected as part of the Application is required to obtain a benefit.

Generally, information provided on the Application may be kept confidential from the public under exemption 6 of the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) to the extent that the disclosure of the information "would constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy." For example, the release of information such as the applicant's address, home telephone number, or personal email address to the public would likely constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy and be kept confidential. However, the release of information such as the educational and professional qualifications of successful applicants would not likely constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy and may be disclosed under the FOIA. In addition, once a person becomes a member of the CAC, their name, and the name and location of the organization where they are employed, would generally be listed on the Board's public website.

Proposal Under OMB Delegated Authority To Extend for Three Years, With Revision, the Following Information Collection

Report title: Disclosure Requirements of Subpart H of Regulation H (Consumer Protection in Sales of Insurance).

Agency form number: FR H-7.

OMB control number: 7100-0298.

Frequency: On occasion.

Respondents: State member banks or any other person at an office of a bank or on behalf of a bank (collectively, Covered Persons).

Estimated number of respondents: Insurance and extension of credit, 341; advertisements, 341.

Estimated average hours per response: Insurance and extension of credit, 1.5 minutes; advertisements, 25 minutes.

Estimated annual burden hours: Insurance and extension of credit, 5,371; advertisements, 142.

General description of report: The insurance consumer protection rules in Regulation H require depository institutions to prepare and provide certain disclosures to consumers. The disclosure requirements are codified at 12 CFR 208.81 et seq. and require Covered Persons to make certain disclosures: Before the completion of the initial purchase of an insurance product or annuity by a consumer; at the time a consumer applies for an extension of credit in connection with which an insurance product or annuity is solicited, offered, or sold; and in advertisements and promotional materials for insurance products or annuities.

Proposed revisions: The Board proposes to revise the FR H-7 information collection to account for the advertisements and promotional materials disclosure requirement in Regulation H, Subpart H, that has not been previously cleared by the Board under the PRA. The Board is not proposing to create any forms associated with the FR H-7 to address this requirement.

Legal authorization and confidentiality: The Disclosure Requirements of Subpart H of Regulation H are authorized by section 305 of the Gramm-Leach-Bliley Act of 1999 (GLBA), which requires that the Board issue regulations, including disclosure requirements, applicable to retail sales practices, solicitations, advertising, or offers of insurance by depository institutions.¹ The disclosures required under Subpart H of Regulation H are mandatory.

Because the FR H-7 disclosures are provided by state member banks to customers, confidentiality issues should generally not arise. In the event the records are obtained by the Board as part of the examination or supervision of a financial institution, this information may be considered confidential pursuant to exemption 8 of the Freedom of Information Act, which protects information contained in "examination, operating, or condition reports" obtained in the bank supervisory process.²

Consultation outside the agency: The Board consulted with the other federal banking agencies with similar regulations pursuant to section 305 of the GLBA.

Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System, September 29, 2021.

Michele Taylor Fennell,

Deputy Associate Secretary of the Board.
