BILLING CODE 4410-04-P

DEPARTMENT OF LABOR

Employee Benefits Security Administration

[Exemption Application No. D-11963]

Notice of Proposed Exemption Involving J.P. Morgan Securities LLC, J.P. Morgan Investment Management Inc., J.P. Morgan Securities, and Chase Wealth Management (Collectively, the Applicants); Located in Weehawken, New Jersey

AGENCY: Employee Benefits Security Administration, Labor.

ACTION: Notice of Proposed Exemption.

SUMMARY: This document gives notice of a proposed individual exemption from certain prohibited transaction restrictions of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the Code) involving certain principal trades previously caused or executed by J.P. Morgan Securities LLC and J.P. Morgan Investment Management Inc. for certain non-ERISA plan clients.

DATES: If granted, the exemption will be in effect from December 14, 2010 until September 16, 2013. Written comments and a request for a public hearing on the proposed exemption should be submitted to the Department by January 13, 2022.

ADDRESSES: All written comments and requests for a hearing should be sent to the Employee Benefits Security Administration (EBSA), Office of Exemption Determinations, Attention: Application No. D-11963 via email to e-OED@dol.gov or online through the Federal eRulemaking Portal: http://www.regulations.gov. Any such comments or requests should be sent by the end of the scheduled comment period. The application for exemption and the comments received will be available for public inspection in the Public Disclosure Room of the Employee Benefits Security Administration, U.S. Department of Labor, Room N-1515, 200 Constitution Avenue NW, Washington, DC 20210. See SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION below for additional information regarding comments.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Ms. Anna Vaughan of the Department, telephone (202) 693-8565. (This is not a toll-free number.)

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: As described in further detail below, J.P. Morgan Securities LLC (JPMS) and J.P. Morgan Investment Management Inc. (JPMIM) previously caused or executed prohibited principal transactions on behalf of certain plans covered by the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (ERISA plans) and plans not covered by ERISA (non-ERISA plans). The Applicants corrected the ERISA plan-related prohibited transactions, which were reviewed and confirmed by an independent fiduciary, and received “no action letters under the Department’s Voluntary Fiduciary Compliance Program (the VFC Program).¹

The VFC Program is not available for corrections of non-ERISA plan-related prohibited transactions; therefore, the Applicants are seeking exemptive relief for their correction of prohibited principal transactions involving the Applicants and their non-ERISA plan clients (the Covered Transactions). The Applicants adhered to the same conditions to correct the Covered Transactions that they applied to correct the transactions involving their ERISA plan clients under the VFC Program.

Comments

In light of the current circumstances surrounding the COVID-19 pandemic caused by the novel coronavirus which may result in disruption to the receipt of comments by U.S. Mail or hand delivery/courier, persons are encouraged to submit all comments electronically and not to submit paper copies. Comments should state the nature of the person’s interest in the proposed exemption and the manner in which the person would be adversely affected by the exemption, if granted. Any person who may be adversely affected by an exemption can request a hearing on the exemption. A request for a hearing must state: (1) The name, address, telephone number, and email address of the person making the request; (2) the nature of the person’s interest in the exemption and the manner in which the person would be adversely affected by the exemption; and (3) a statement of the issues to be addressed and a general description of the evidence to be presented at the hearing. The Department will grant a request for a hearing made in accordance with the requirements above where a hearing is necessary to fully explore material factual issues identified by the person requesting the hearing. A notice of such hearing shall be published by the Department in the Federal Register. The Department may decline to hold a hearing if: (1) The request for the hearing does not meet the requirements above; (2) the only issues identified for exploration at the hearing are matters of law; or (3) the factual issues identified can be fully explored through the submission of evidence in written (including electronic) form. Warning: All comments received will be included in the public record without change and may be made available online at http://www.regulations.gov, including any personal information provided, unless the comment includes information claimed to be confidential or other information whose disclosure is restricted by statute. If you submit a comment, EBSA recommends that you include your name and other contact information in the body of your comment, but DO NOT submit information that you consider to be confidential, or otherwise protected (such as Social Security number or an unlisted phone number) or confidential business information that you do not want publicly disclosed. However, if EBSA cannot read your comment due to technical difficulties and cannot contact you for clarification, EBSA might not be able to consider your comment. Additionally, the http://www.regulations.gov website is an “anonymous access” system, which means EBSA will not know your identity or contact information unless
