

purchase foreign currencies and U.S. dollar exchange of at least $5 billion as of the end of a calendar quarter is considered a “significant branch” and must file the FFIEC 030 report quarterly. A U.S. depository institution with a foreign branch having total assets in excess of $250 million that does not meet either of the criteria to file quarterly must file the entire FFIEC 030 report for this foreign branch on an annual basis as of December 31.

A U.S. depository institution with a foreign branch having total assets of $50 million or more, but less than or equal to $250 million that does not meet the criteria to file the FFIEC 030 report must file the FFIEC 030S report for the foreign branch on an annual basis as of December 31. A U.S. depository institution with a foreign branch having total assets of less than $50 million is exempt from filing the FFIEC 030 and 030S reports.

Foreign branches that meet the criteria for reporting on a quarterly basis must not be consolidated with any other branch. U.S. depository institutions may, at their option, consolidate the figures for all other branches located in the same country.

II. Current Actions

On August 13, 2021, the agencies requested comment for 60 days on a proposal to extend for three years, without revision, the FFIEC 030 and FFIEC 030S.¹ The comment period for the proposal ended on October 12, 2021, and the agencies received one comment.

The commenter, an institution, asked the agencies to clarify how to report equity securities with readily determinable fair values not held for trading in the FFIEC 030. The commenter stated that reporting these securities in line 4(b), “Other securities (debt and equity)” would align the FFIEC 030 with the Call Report classification. The agencies agree with the commenter’s suggestions and will revise the FFIEC 030 instructions accordingly. The agencies will extend the report forms without revision.
