Order Denying Export Privileges; In the Matter of: Robert Herman Fleischer, 20003 N. 23rd Avenue, Apt. 250, Phoenix, AZ 85027

On August 4, 2017, in the U.S. District Court for the District of Arizona, Robert Herman Fleischer (“Fleischer”) was convicted of violating Section 38 of the Arms Export Control Act, 22 U.S.C. 2778 (2012) (“AECA”), by intentionally attempting to willfully and knowingly export and cause to be exported from the United States to Mexico 2,999 rounds of 7.62 x 39mm caliber ammunition, manufactured by Igman Arsenal, which are designated as defense articles on the United States Munitions List, without the required U.S. Department of State licenses. Fleischer was sentenced to 21 months in prison, with credit for time served, three years of supervised release, and a special assessment of $100. Fleischer was also placed on the U.S. Department of State Debarred List.

The Export Administration Regulations (“EAR” or “Regulations”) are administered and enforced by the U.S. Department of Commerce’s Bureau of Industry and Security (“BIS”).¹ Section 766.25 of the Regulations provides, in pertinent part, that the “Director of [BIS’s] Office of Export Enforcement, in consultation with the Director of [BIS’s] Office of Exporter Services, may deny the export privileges of any person who has been convicted of a violation of any of the statutes set forth at 50 U.S.C. 4819 (e)(1)(B),”²

¹ The Regulations are currently codified in the Code of Federal Regulations at 15 CFR Parts 730–774 (2021). The Regulations originally issued under the Export Administration Act of 1979, as amended, 50 U.S.C. 4601–4623 (Supp. III 2015) (“EAA”), which lapsed on August 21, 2001. The President, through Executive Order 13,222 of August 17, 2001 (3 CFR, 2001 Comp. 783 (2002)), which was extended by successive Presidential Notices, continued the Regulations in full force and effect under the International Emergency Economic Powers Act (50 U.S.C. 1701, et seq.) (“IEEPA”). On August 13, 2018, the President signed into law the John S. McCain National Defense Authorization Act for Fiscal Year 2019, which includes the Export Control Reform Act of 2018, 50 U.S.C. 4801–4852 (“ECRA”). While Section 1766 of ECRA repeals the provisions of the EAA (except for three sections which are inapplicable here), Section 1768 of ECRA provides, in pertinent part, that all rules and regulations that were made or issued under the EAA, including as continued in effect pursuant to IEEPA, and were in effect as of ECRA’s date of enactment (August 13, 2018), shall continue in effect according to their terms until modified, superseded, set aside, or revoked through action undertaken pursuant to the authority provided under ECRA.

² The Director, Office of Export Enforcement, is now the authorizing official for issuance of denial including Section 38 of the AECA. 15 CFR 766.25(a).³ The denial of export privileges under this provision may be for a period of up to 10 years from the date of the conviction. 15 CFR 766.25(d). In addition, pursuant to Section 750.8 of the Regulations, BIS’s Office of Exporter Services may revoke any BIS-issued licenses in which the person has an interest at the time of his/her conviction.⁴

BIS received notice of Fleischer’s conviction for violating Section 38 of the AECA, and pursuant to Section 766.25 of the Regulations, has provided notice and an opportunity for Fleischer to make a written submission to BIS. BIS has not received a written submission from Fleischer.

Based upon my review of the record and consultations with BIS’s Office of Exporter Services, including its Director, and the facts available to BIS, I have decided to deny Fleischer’s export privileges under the Regulations for a period of seven years from the date of Fleischer’s conviction. The Office of Exporter Services has also decided to revoke any BIS-issued license in which Fleischer had an interest at the time of his conviction.

Accordingly, it is hereby ordered:

First, from the date of this Order until August 4, 2024, Robert Herman Fleischer, with a last known address of 20003 N. 23rd Avenue, Apt. 250, Phoenix, AZ 85027, and when acting for or on his behalf, his successors, assigns, employees, agents or representatives (“the Denied Person”), may not, directly or indirectly, participate in any way in any transaction involving any commodity, software or technology (hereinafter collectively referred to as “item”) exported or to be exported from the United States that is subject to the Regulations, including, but not limited to:

A. Applying for, obtaining, or using any license, license exception, or export control document;

B. Carrying on negotiations concerning, or ordering, buying, orders, pursuant to recent amendments to the Regulations (85 FR 73411, November 18, 2020).
