I. Synopsis

1. The Public Safety and Homeland Security Bureau (PSHSB) grants a Motion filed by the Edison Electric Institute (EEI) seeking an extension of 10 days to file comments and reply comments in response to the notice of proposed rulemaking in PS Docket Nos. 21-346 and 15-80 and ET Docket No. 04-35 that was released on October 1, 2021 (NPRM), and published in the Federal Register on November 5, 2021. See Motion of Edison Electric Institute for Extension of Time, PS Docket Nos. 21-346 and 15-80, ET Docket No. 04-35 (filed Nov. 19, 2021) (Motion). For the reasons stated below, PSHSB finds that EEI's request is warranted and thus extends the comment and reply comment dates to December 16, 2021 and January 14, 2022, respectively.

2. On September 30, 2021, the Commission adopted the NPRM seeking comment on proposed rules to improve communications reliability during disasters. 86 FR 61103 (Nov. 5, 2021) (summarizing the NPRM). The NPRM seeks comment on the wireless industry's disaster response framework, the Commission's network outage reporting rules, and strategies to reduce the impact of power outages on communications networks. The summary of the NPRM, published in the Federal Register on November 5, 2021, indicates that comments must be filed on or before December 6, 2021, and reply comments must be filed on or before January 4, 2022. Id.

3. On November 19, 2021, EEI filed the Motion to request a 10-day extension of the comment and reply comment filing deadlines, to December 16, 2021, and January 14, 2022, respectively. EEI states that these deadlines should be extended "to ensure that there is sufficient time to conduct consultations with respective member companies to prepare reasoned comments and reply comments that meaningfully address the broad range of issues presented by the NPRM." EEI notes that November 25th was the Thanksgiving holiday and that the Christmas and New Year's holidays are on December 25th and January 1st, respectively, and that "this is a period when many organizations are closed and vacations are taken." EEI states that, without an extension, it would be challenging to "build industry consensus before submitting comments." EEI contends that an extension of 10 days will not result in any meaningful delay in the proceeding and will result in more focused and better reasoned comments. EEI represents that CTIA, NCTA—The Internet and Television Association, and USTelecom—The Broadband Association support the Motion and that the National Association of Broadcasters has no objections to it. No opposition to the Motion has been filed.

4. The Commission grants a 10-day extension of time to file comments and reply comments in this proceeding. As set forth in § 1.46 of the Commission's rules, 47 CFR 1.46, the Commission does not routinely grant extensions of time for filing comments. In this case, however, the extension is unopposed, limited to only ten days, and will allow commenters sufficient time to file meaningful comment and reply comments given the intervening holidays. The Commission therefore grants EEI's unopposed Motion and extends the comment and reply comment deadlines to December 16, 2021, and January 14, 2022, respectively.

II. Ordering Clauses

5. Accordingly, it is ordered that, pursuant to section 4(i)-(j) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, 47 U.S.C. 154(i)-(j), and §§ 0.204, 0.392, and 1.46 of the Commission's rules, 47 CFR 0.204, 0.392, 1.46, the Motion for Extension of Time filed by EEI is granted.

6. It is further ordered that the date to file comments and reply comments in response to the NPRM are extended to December 16, 2021, and January 14, 2022, respectively.

Federal Communications Commission.

David Furth,

Deputy Chief, Public Safety and Homeland Security Bureau.
