SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Background

The Federal courts have upheld the authority of a Federal agency to establish procedures governing the production of records and testimony by personnel in legal proceedings in which the agency is not a party. United States ex rel. Touhy v. Ragen, 340 U.S. 462 (1951). This proposed rule would establish policies and procedures that the agency will follow when, in a legal proceeding, a current or former NEH employee receives a demand or request to testify as to facts or events that relate to his or her official duties or the functions of NEH or to produce official records and information.

This proposed rule relates to testimony and the production of records only in connection with legal proceedings to which the United States is not a party. It would not apply to requests under the Freedom of Information Act, 5 U.S.C. 552, or the Privacy Act of 1974, 5 U.S.C. 552a; Congressional demands or requests for testimony or records; or legal proceedings to which the United States is a party.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: This is a summary of the Commission's document, Public Notice, DA 21-1583, released December 15, 2022. The full text of this document is available at <https://www.fcc.gov/document/wcb-seeks-comment-ics-annual-reporting-and-certification-revisions>.

Synopsis

By this document, the Wireline Competition Bureau (WCB or the Bureau) seeks comment on proposed revisions to the instructions and templates for the Annual Reports and Annual Certifications submitted by providers of inmate calling services (ICS). The Commission requires ICS providers to make these filings to enable the Commission to monitor and track trends in the ICS marketplace, increase provider transparency, and ensure compliance with the Commission's ICS rules.

Pursuant to delegated authority, the Bureau created standardized reporting templates (FCC Form 2301(a)) for the Annual Report and a related certification of accuracy (FCC Form 2301(b)), as well as instructions to guide providers through the reporting process. The Bureau amended the instructions and template for the Annual Report in 2020 in order to improve the type and quality of the information collected.

In the 2021 ICS Order, the Commission revised its ICS rules by adopting, inter alia, lower interim rate caps for interstate ICS calls, new interim rate caps for international ICS calls, and a rate cap structure that requires ICS providers to differentiate between legally mandated and contractually required site commissions. The new 2021 rules necessitate further changes to the annual reporting and certification templates for which WCB seeks comment herein. Pursuant to the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995 (PRA), WCB will publish a notice in the Federal Register seeking comment on the information collection requirements for the annual reporting and certification requirements in the Public Notice.

I. Overall Structure of the Annual Reporting and Certification Requirements

Pursuant to delegated authority, WCB proposes to revise the instructions and templates for the Annual Reports and Certifications to be consistent with the Commission's rules. These revised instructions and the associated templates, if adopted, will consolidate and supplant the instructions and templates for earlier iterations of the ICS annual reporting and certification requirements. WCB also proposes improvements based on experience reviewing prior Annual Reports, which has persuaded us that revised instructions would help providers better understand the requirements, making the submitted reports more useful to the Commission and consumers. To that end, WCB proposes to adopt both an Excel-format template and a Word-format template for the Annual Reports to better separate individual data items from narrative responses. For simplicity, WCB refers to these respective portions of the template as the Word template and the Excel template. WCB seeks comment on these proposed revisions, generally, and on the specific structure, content, and format of the proposed templates and instructions attached hereto. WCB likewise proposes minor revisions to the certification form. Are
