Trademarks Administrative Sanctions Process

AGENCY: United States Patent and Trademark Office, Commerce.

ACTION: Notice.

SUMMARY: As part of the United States Patent and Trademark Office's (USPTO or Office) continuing efforts to protect the integrity of the U.S. trademark register, the Commissioner for Trademarks (Commissioner) has established an administrative process for investigating submissions filed with the USPTO in trademark matters that appear to violate the Trademark Rules of Practice, including the rules concerning signatures, certificates, and representation of others in trademark matters before the USPTO (collectively, the USPTO rules), and/or the USPTO website's Terms of Use; and imposing sanctions, as appropriate.

DATES: Comments must be received by January 20, 2022 to ensure consideration.

ADDRESSES: Comments regarding this notice should be sent to TMFRNotices@uspto.gov with the subject line "Trademarks Administrative Sanctions Process." If a submission by email is not feasible (e.g., due to a lack of access to a computer and/or the internet), please contact the USPTO for special instructions using the contact information provided in the FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT section of this notice.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Robert Lavache, Office of the Deputy Commissioner for Trademark Examination Policy, at 571–272–5881 or TMFRNotices@uspto.gov.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: As part of the USPTO's continuing efforts to protect the integrity of the U.S. trademark register, the Commissioner has established an administrative process to investigate improper submissions filed with the USPTO in trademark matters. The USPTO Director has the authority to investigate submissions that appear to violate the USPTO rules and/or the USPTO website's Terms of Use and impose sanctions or actions as deemed appropriate. See 37 CFR 11.18. Sanctions may include terminating proceedings. See 37 CFR 11.18(c)(5). Pursuant to 35 U.S.C. 3(a)–(b), the Director has explicitly delegated to the Commissioner for Trademarks the authority to impose such sanctions or actions permitted under 37 CFR 11.18(c), as deemed appropriate in trademark matters, and to otherwise exercise the Director's authority in trademark-related matters. The Director has also provided that such authority may be further delegated by the Commissioner. See generally Delegation of Authority to Issue Sanctions in Trademark Proceedings (January 14, 2020)¹ and Trademark Manual of Examining Procedure § 1701.

To promote transparency regarding the sanctions process for applicants or registrants who may be impacted by sanctions, as well as third parties who may be concerned about a particular application or registration, the USPTO will place documents associated with the process, including administrative orders to show cause and orders for sanctions regarding particular applications or registrations, in the electronic file record, which can be viewed by the public in the USPTO Trademark Status and Document Retrieval (TSDR) database. Further, examination may be suspended while the application is subject to a pending administrative investigation or order, and, if so, the TSDR record will reflect that as well.

I. Reporting and Investigation of Suspicious Filings

The administrative process begins when the USPTO identifies or otherwise learns of a suspicious submission in connection with a trademark application or registration, based on information communicated by internal sources, such as examining attorneys and data analytics personnel, or through external sources, such as Letters of
