SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Comments

The information collection notice was previously published in the Federal Register on August 18, 2021, at 86 FR 46263 allowing for a 60-day public comment period. USCIS received twelve comments in connection with the 60-day notice.

USCIS made edits to the I-129H1 Form and Instructions in response to comments. USCIS also removed form items and instructional language that were associated with the final rule published on January 8, 2021 titled, Modification of Registration Requirement for Petitioners Seeking To File Cap-Subject H-1B Petitions (86 FR 1676) (H-1B Selection Final Rule). That rule was withdrawn on December 22, 2021 via publication of a final rule in the Federal Register titled Modification of Registration Requirement for Petitioners Seeking To File Cap-Subject H-1B Petitions, Implementation of Vacatur (86 FR 72516), as were information collection elements associated with that rule that would have gone into effect had the rule not been withdrawn. Therefore, the form items and instructional language associated with the January 2021 final rule that were included in the 60-day notice version of Form I-129H1 are not being implemented.

You may access the information collection instrument with instructions, or additional information by visiting the Federal eRulemaking Portal site at: <http://www.regulations.gov> and enter USCIS-2021-0015 in the search box. The comments submitted to USCIS via this method are visible to the Office of Management and Budget and comply with the requirements of 5 CFR 1320.12(c). All submissions will be posted, without change, to the Federal eRulemaking Portal at <http://www.regulations.gov>, and will include any personal information you provide. Therefore, submitting this information makes it public. You may wish to consider limiting the amount of personal information that you provide in any voluntary submission you make to DHS. DHS may withhold information provided in comments from public viewing that it determines may impact the privacy of an individual or is offensive. For additional information, please read the Privacy Act notice that is available via the link in the footer of <http://www.regulations.gov>.

Written comments and suggestions from the public and affected agencies should address one or more of the following four points:

(1) Evaluate whether the proposed collection of information is necessary for the proper performance of the functions of the agency, including whether the information will have practical utility;

(2) Evaluate the accuracy of the agency's estimate of the burden of the proposed collection of information, including the validity of the methodology and assumptions used

(3) Enhance the quality, utility, and clarity of the information to be collected; and

(4) Minimize the burden of the collection of information on those who are to respond, including through the use of appropriate automated, electronic, mechanical, or other technological collection techniques or other forms of information technology, e.g., permitting electronic submission of responses.

Overview of This Information Collection

(1) Type of Information Collection: New Collection.

(2) Title of the Form/Collection: Petition for a Nonimmigrant Worker: H-1 Classifications.

(3) Agency form number, if any, and the applicable component of the DHS sponsoring the collection: I-129H1; USCIS.

(4) Affected public who will be asked or required to respond, as well as a brief abstract: Primary: Business or other for-profit. USCIS will use the data collected on this form to determine eligibility for the requested nonimmigrant classification and/or requests to extend or change nonimmigrant status. An employer (or agent, where applicable) uses this form to petition USCIS for a noncitizen to temporarily enter the United States as an H-1B or H-1B1 nonimmigrant. An employer (or agent, where applicable) also uses this form to request an extension of stay of an H-1B or H-1B1 nonimmigrant worker or to change the status of a beneficiary currently in the United States as a nonimmigrant to H-1B or H-1B1. The form serves the purpose of standardizing requests for H-1B and H-1B1 nonimmigrant workers and ensuring that basic information required for assessing eligibility is provided by the petitioner while requesting that beneficiaries be classified under the H-1B or H-1B1 nonimmigrant employment categories. USCIS compiles data from this form to provide information required by Congress annually to assess the effectiveness and utilization of certain nonimmigrant classifications. Data collected on employers petitioning for H-1B beneficiaries is provided to the media, researchers, and the general public via the H-1B Employer Data Hub.

(5) An estimate of the total number of respondents and the amount of time estimated for an average respondent to respond: The estimated total number of respondents for the information collection Form I-129H1 is 402,034 and the estimated hour burden per response is 4 hours.

(6) An estimate of the total public burden (in hours) associated with the collection: The total estimated annual hour burden associated with this collection is 1,608,136 hours.

(7) An estimate of the total public burden (in cost) associated with the collection: The estimated total annual cost burden associated with this collection of information is $207,047,510.
