

Farm, Village site, Lowland. The human remains were excavated by Ernest Volk during an AMNH sponsored expedition. The AMNH accessioned the human remains that same year. The human remains include one adult who is likely male and one adult whose sex is indeterminate. No known individuals were identified. No associated funerary objects are present. Burial depth suggests that these human remains date to the Middle Woodland Period (A.D. 200–900).

In 1898, human remains representing, at minimum, two individuals were removed from NJ, Mercer County, Delaware Valley, one mile south of Trenton, Andrew K. Rowan Farm Village site. The human remains were excavated by Ernest Volk during an AMNH sponsored expedition. The AMNH accessioned the human remains that same year. The human remains include two individuals of unknown sex or age. No known individuals were identified. The two associated funerary objects are one beaver tooth and one lot of pottery fragments. Burial depth suggests that these human remains date to the Middle Woodland Period (A.D. 200–900).

In 1899, human remains representing, at minimum, one individual were removed from NJ, Mercer County, Delaware Valley, 1 mile south of Trenton, Andrew K. Rowan Farm, Village Site. The human remains were excavated by Ernest Volk during an AMNH sponsored expedition. The AMNH accessioned the human remains that same year. The human remains include one subadult. No known individual was identified. The one associated funerary object is one lot of animal bone fragments. Burial depth suggests that these human remains date to the Middle Woodland Period (A.D. 200–900).

In 1899, human remains representing, at minimum, two individuals were removed from NJ, Mercer County, Abbott Farm, Trench 1. The human remains were excavated by Ernest Volk during an AMNH sponsored expedition. The AMNH accessioned the human remains that same year. The human remains include two adults whose sex is indeterminate. No known individuals were identified. The 14 associated funerary objects include one lot of beaver teeth fragments, one fragmentary pot (more than 50 pieces), two pieces of white quarts, two flakes, one broken spearpoint, one broken point, one bone implement, one unfinished implement, one implement (knife?), and three blade pieces. Artifact analysis and burial depth suggest that these human remains and associated funerary objects date to the Middle Woodland Period (A.D. 200–900).

In the Federal Register (83 FR 39778, August 10, 2018, FR Doc #2018–17217, on page 39778), column 3, paragraph 3, is corrected by substituting the following paragraph:

We infer that the human remains and associated funerary objects from Abbott Farm, Bowman's Brook, and Burial Ridge date to the Middle Woodland (A.D. 200–900) or later. Historically, these three locales lay within Lenape territory during the contact period, while archeological and linguistic data indicate a cultural continuity extending back to the Middle Woodland Period.

In the Federal Register (83 FR 39778, August 10, 2018, FR Doc #2018–17217, on page 39779), column 1, paragraph 1 under the heading “Determinations Made by the American Museum of Natural History,” after “Officials of the American Museum of Natural History have determined that,” sentences 1 and 2 are corrected by substituting the following sentences:

- Pursuant to 25 U.S.C. 3001(9), the human remains described in this notice represent the physical remains of 68 individuals of Native American ancestry.
- Pursuant to 25 U.S.C. 3001(3)(A), the 226 objects described in this notice are reasonably believed to have been placed with or near individual human remains at the time of death or later as part of the death rite or ceremony.

Additional Requestors and Disposition

Lineal descendants or representatives of any Indian Tribe or Native Hawaiian organization not identified in this notice that wish to request transfer of control of these human remains and associated funerary objects should submit a written request with information in support of the request to Nell Murphy, American Museum of Natural History, Central Park West at 79th Street, New York, NY 10024, telephone (212) 769–5837, email nmurphy@amnh.org, by February 25, 2022. After that date, if no additional requestors have come forward, transfer of control of the human remains and associated funerary objects to the Delaware Nation, Oklahoma; Delaware Tribe of Indians; and the Stockbridge Munsee Community, Wisconsin may proceed.

The American Museum of Natural History is responsible for notifying the Delaware Nation, Oklahoma; Delaware Tribe of Indians; and the Stockbridge Munsee Community, Wisconsin that this notice has been published.

INTERNATIONAL TRADE COMMISSION

Notice of Receipt of Complaint; Solicitation of Comments Relating to the Public Interest

AGENCY: U.S. International Trade Commission.

ACTION: Notice.

SUMMARY: Notice is hereby given that the U.S. International Trade Commission has received a complaint entitled Certain Cellular Base Station Communication Equipment, Components Thereof, and Products Containing Same, DN 3599; the Commission is soliciting comments on any public interest issues raised by the complaint or complainant's filing pursuant to the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Lisa R. Barton, Secretary to the Commission, U.S. International Trade Commission, 500 E Street SW, Washington, DC 20436, telephone (202) 205–2000. The public version of the complaint can be accessed on the Commission's Electronic Document Information System (EDIS) at <https://edis.usitc.gov>. For help accessing EDIS, please email EDIS3Help@usitc.gov.

General information concerning the Commission may also be obtained by accessing its internet server at United States International Trade Commission (USITC) at <https://www.usitc.gov>. The public record for this investigation may be viewed on the Commission's Electronic Document Information System (EDIS) at <https://edis.usitc.gov>. Hearing-impaired persons are advised that information on this matter can be obtained by contacting the Commission's TDD terminal on (202) 205–1810.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: The Commission has received a complaint and a submission pursuant to § 210.8(b) of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure filed on behalf of Apple Inc. on January 19, 2022. The complaint alleges violations of section 337 of the Tariff Act of 1930 (19 U.S.C. 1337) in the importation into the United States, the sale for importation, and the sale within the United States after importation of certain cellular base station communication equipment, components thereof, and products containing same. The complainant names as respondents: Ericsson AB of Sweden; Telefonaktiebolaget LM Ericsson of Sweden; and Ericsson Inc. of Plano, TX. The complainant requests that the Commission issue a limited exclusion order, cease and desist orders, and impose a bond upon respondents alleged infringing articles during the 60-day Presidential review period pursuant to 19 U.S.C. 1337(j).

Proposed respondents, other interested parties, and members of the public are invited to file comments on any public interest issues raised by the complaint or § 210.8(b) filing. Comments should address whether issuance of the relief specifically requested by the complainant in this investigation would affect the public health and welfare in the United States, competitive conditions in the United States economy, the production of like or directly competitive articles in the United States, or United States consumers.

In particular, the Commission is interested in comments that:

(i) Explain how the articles potentially subject to the requested remedial orders are used in the United States;

(ii) identify any public health, safety, or welfare concerns in the United States relating to the requested remedial orders;

(iii) identify like or directly competitive articles that complainant, its licensees, or third parties make in the United States which could replace the subject articles if they were to be excluded;

(iv) indicate whether complainant, complainant's licensees, and/or third party suppliers have the capacity to replace the volume of articles potentially subject to the requested exclusion order and/or a cease and desist order within a commercially reasonable time; and

(v) explain how the requested remedial orders would impact United States consumers.

Written submissions on the public interest must be filed no later than by close of business, eight calendar days after the date of publication of this notice in the Federal Register. There will be further opportunities for comment on the public interest after the issuance of any final initial determination in this investigation. Any written submissions on other issues must also be filed by no later than the close of business, eight calendar days after publication of this notice in the Federal Register. Complainant may file replies to any written submissions no later than three calendar days after the date on which any initial submissions were due. No other submissions will be accepted, unless requested by the Commission. Any submissions and replies filed in response to this Notice are limited to five (5) pages in length, inclusive of attachments.

Persons filing written submissions must file the original document electronically on or before the deadlines stated above. Submissions should refer to the docket number ("Docket No. 3599") in a prominent place on the cover page and/or the first page. (See Handbook for Electronic Filing Procedures, Electronic Filing Procedures¹). Please note the Secretary's Office will accept only electronic filings during this time. Filings must be made through the Commission's Electronic Document Information System (EDIS, <https://edis.usitc.gov>.) No in-person paper-based filings or paper copies of any electronic filings will be accepted until further notice. Persons with questions regarding filing should contact the Secretary at EDIS3Help@usitc.gov.

Any person desiring to submit a document to the Commission in confidence must request confidential treatment. All such requests should be directed to the Secretary to the Commission and must include a full statement of the reasons why the Commission should grant such treatment. See 19 CFR 201.6. Documents for which confidential treatment by the Commission is properly sought will be treated accordingly. All information, including confidential business information and documents for which confidential treatment is properly sought, submitted to the Commission for purposes of this Investigation may be disclosed to and used: (i) By the Commission, its employees and Offices, and contract personnel (a) for developing or maintaining the records of this or a related proceeding, or (b) in internal investigations, audits, reviews, and evaluations relating to the programs, personnel, and operations of the Commission including under 5 U.S.C. Appendix 3; or (ii) by U.S. government employees and contract personnel,² solely for cybersecurity purposes. All nonconfidential written submissions will be available for public inspection at the Office of the Secretary and on EDIS.³

This action is taken under the authority of section 337 of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended (19 U.S.C. 1337), and of §§ 201.10 and 210.8(c) of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure (19 CFR 201.10, 210.8(c)).

By order of the Commission.

Issued: January 20, 2022.

Lisa Barton,

Secretary to the Commission.
