NATIONAL ARCHIVES AND RECORDS ADMINISTRATION

[NARA–2022–012]

Privacy Act of 1974; System of Records

AGENCY: National Archives and Records Administration (NARA).

ACTION: Notice revising a system of records.

SUMMARY: We propose to revise a system of records in our existing inventory of systems subject to the Privacy Act of 1974. The system is NARA 44, Reasonable Accommodation Request Records. We are revising it to make it more clear that the system includes records of requests for religious accommodations under Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964. Our existing SORN permits religious accommodation requests; however, we want to modify our SORN to expressly authorize such requests for people who may submit religious accommodation requests related to COVID vaccination requirements. We are also updating the SORN to reorganize the SORN into the current required format. In this notice, we publish the system of records notice in full for public notice and comment.

DATES: This revised system of records, NARA 44, is effective on January 28, 2022.

ADDRESSES: National Archives and Records Administration, Regulations Desk, Strategy and Policy Division, Suite 4100, 8601 Adelphi Road, College Park, MD 20740.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Kimberly Keravuori, Regulatory and External Policy Program Manager, by email at regulation_comments@nara.gov or by phone at 301.837.3151.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: Our Reasonable Accommodation Request Records system of records (NARA 44) includes records of requests, processing, and decisions for reasonable accommodations submitted by current and former NARA employees and applicants. It specifically mentions accommodations for disabilities. Due to recent COVID-related executive orders, a Federal employee may now request an exception to a COVID vaccination based on religious requirements, so we feel it is appropriate to clarify that this system also includes reasonable accommodations for religious reasons. As a result, we are adding language to also specifically state that the system includes religious accommodation requests. We are adding a reference to such requestors in the “categories of individuals covered” section, adding a reference to religious accommodation requests in the “categories of records in the system” section and listing information on religious beliefs and practices in the types of information a requestor might submit, removing the phrase “under the Rehabilitation Act” from the end of the “record source categories” section so that it doesn’t appear to limit the system to only requests for disability accommodations, and adding Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 to the authorities list.

The Privacy Act of 1974, as amended (5 U.S.C. 552a) (“Privacy Act”), provides certain safeguards for an individual against an invasion of personal privacy. It requires Federal agencies that disseminate any record of personally identifiable information to do so in a manner that assures the action is for a necessary and lawful purpose, the information is current and accurate for its intended use, and the agency provides adequate safeguards to prevent misuse of such information. NARA intends to follow these principles when transferring information to another agency or individual as a “routine use,” including assuring that the information is relevant
