Background: LSC last solicited input broadly on its Rulemaking Agenda in 2007 via an email to Executive Directors. In the intervening years, LSC has identified rulemaking priorities through a combination of:

- LSC Task Force reports;
- Comments from stakeholders, including grantees, the client board member community, LSC's Board of Directors, and the National Legal Aid and Defender Association;
- Audit and investigation reports issued by LSC's Office of the Inspector General;
- Statutory changes; and
- Discrete situations that indicated a need for rulemaking.

Since 2010, LSC has completed 17 separate rulemakings. These rulemakings have ranged from ones needed to reflect Congressional action, such as revisions to the Freedom of Information Act or the expansion of grantees' authority to represent defendants in Tribal criminal courts under the Tribal Law and Order Act of 2010, to complete overhauls of LSC's subgrant rule. LSC repealed one obsolete rule governing the creation and operation of state advisory councils. LSC also created two new rules, one modeled after the Federal government's Touhy rule establishing the process by which outside parties may request documents and testimony from LSC for litigation purposes, and one governing grantees' processes for awarding contracts and acquiring, using, and disposing of property with LSC funds.

Because more than ten years have elapsed since LSC last engaged its stakeholders in a comprehensive review of its rules, LSC Management believed that consulting with grantees, the Board, and other stakeholders in a more focused process will result in a new agenda that prioritizes changes aimed at reducing administrative burdens on grantee and LSC staff alike and improving the efficiency and effectiveness of grantees' operations and LSC's oversight activities.

Through this Notice, LSC is announcing opportunities for grantees, clients, other stakeholders, and the public to provide LSC with their views on three issues:

- Regulations that require clarification, modification, or revision;
- Regulations that are no longer needed and may be repealed; and
- Areas or topics for which new regulations may be needed or desirable.

Interested parties may submit their comments in writing to LSC via email, fax, or postal mail. Additionally, LSC will hold four listening sessions during which interested parties may join a Zoom call with LSC staff to provide their comments orally.

Authority: 42 U.S.C. 2996g(e).

Dated: February 14, 2022.

Stefanie Davis,

Senior Associate General Counsel.
