

(9) The project eligibility criteria:

In accordance with the Cure Violence model, eligible program participants should be at high risk for involvement in violence, determined by meeting at least four of the following seven criteria:

- Thought to be a member of a gang known to be actively involved in violence;
- History of criminal activity, including crimes against persons, pending or prior arrests for weapons offenses;
- Thought to have access to a weapon;
- High-risk street activity, thought to be involved in street activity that is highly associated with violence;
- Victim of a recent shooting;
- Recently released from prison for a crime associated with violence; and/or
- Between the ages of 16 and 24.

(10) The evaluation design:

The evaluation team will employ a quasi-experimental difference-in-differences evaluation approach.

(11) The metrics that will be used in the evaluation to determine whether the outcomes have been achieved as a result of each intervention and how these metrics will be measured:

The evaluators will compare the number of gunshot-wound hospitalizations in the eight sites that receive the Cure Violence intervention, as compared to the comparison sites that do not receive the intervention.

(12) The estimate of the savings to the Federal, State, and local government, on a program-by-program basis and in the aggregate, if the agreement is entered into and implemented and the outcomes are achieved as a result of each intervention:

Federal Savings—$17,595,000
State Savings—$17,595,000

U.S.-CHINA ECONOMIC AND SECURITY REVIEW COMMISSIONNotice of Open Public Hearing

AGENCY: U.S.-China Economic and Security Review Commission

ACTION: Notice of open public hearing.

SUMMARY: Notice is hereby given of the following hearing of the U.S.-China Economic and Security Review Commission. The Commission is mandated by Congress to investigate, assess, and report to Congress annually on “the national security implications of the economic relationship between the United States and the People’s Republic of China.” Pursuant to this mandate, the Commission will hold a public hearing in Washington, DC on March 17, 2022 on “China’s Energy Plans and Practices.”

DATES: The hearing is scheduled for Thursday, March 17, 2022, time TBD.

ADDRESSES: This hearing will be held with panelists and Commissioners participating in-person or online via videoconference. Members of the audience will be able to view a live webcast via the Commission’s website at www.uscc.gov. Also, please check the Commission’s website for possible changes to the hearing schedule.

Reservations are not required to attend the hearing.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Any member of the public seeking further information concerning the hearing should contact Jameson Cunningham, 444 North Capitol Street NW, Suite 602, Washington DC 20001; telephone: 202-624-1496, or via email at jcunningham@uscc.gov. Reservations are not required to attend the hearing.

ADA Accessibility: For questions about the accessibility of the event or to request an accommodation, please contact Jameson Cunningham via email at jcunningham@uscc.gov. Requests for an accommodation should be made as soon as possible, and at least five business days prior to the event.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Background: This is the third public hearing the Commission will hold during its 2022 report cycle. The hearing will begin with an assessment of China’s domestic energy system, focusing on key energy and climate-related goals, as well as the institutional and political obstacles China faces in achieving them. Subsequent panels will explore China’s energy security and key partnerships with foreign suppliers, as well as the implications of China’s energy and climate policies for the United States.

The hearing will be co-chaired by Vice Chair Kim Glas and Commissioner Aaron Friedberg. Any interested party may file a written statement by March 17, 2022 by transmitting to the contact above. A portion of the hearing will include a question and answer period between the Commissioners and the witnesses.

Authority: Congress created the U.S.-China Economic and Security Review Commission in 2000 in the National Defense Authorization Act (Pub. L. 106-398), as amended by Division P of the Consolidated Appropriations Resolution, 2003 (Pub. L. 108-7), as amended by Public Law 109-108 (November 22, 2005), as amended by Public Law 113-291 (December 19, 2014).

Dated: February 18, 2022.

Daniel W. Peck,

Executive Director, U.S.-China Economic and Security Review Commission.
